Country Fair Planned for Evelyn Carr

It's County Fair time again and that means fun for everyone. No cooking on fair night. The "Sidewalk Cafe" has a large variety to please the palate of any gourmet, and to satisfy the sweet tooth, drop in at the "Sweet Shop" where Mrs. Walter Frese will be sure to have something to everyone's liking. For Dad, here's a chance to get some Christmas shopping done early. Pay a visit to the "Country Store" where Mrs. Roy Jackson and Mrs. Norman Wilson will show an assortment of aprons and needlecraft to please any housewife. Dolls will be for sale and Mrs. Richard Hubert is sure to have a "White Elephant".

And for Junior and Sis, the "Midway", under the experienced hand of Mrs. Gerald Cunerty has a game for all ages, from bean bag toss to real live gold fish.

Posters are being made by students of the Carr school and will be on display. Youth organizations will show their crafts.

Spooks Due At School

The spooks will be out in full dress Halloween night at the Western Avenue Baptist Elementary school, 2526 S. Western ave., Harbor City, when the annual carnival will be held. The fun begins at 4:30 p.m. when the game booths, a fish pond, cake walk, cartoons, country store, and snack bar open. To add to the enjoyment, a spaghetti dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. The public is invited.

The Parent-Teacher Fellowship of the school would also like to invite neighbors and friends to a discussion by a panel composed of parents, teachers, and the school nurse, with audience participation on November 5, in the auditorium. Refreshments will be served by the Kindergarten mothers.

DR. CYPHERT ADDRESSES Harbor City PTA Plans Festival

Details of the PTA Carnival to be held October 26 were covered by ways and means chairman, Mrs. F. A. Geisel. Games and booths are planned which will appeal to all school age groups including some to challenge the skills of the 7th and 8th graders.

Mrs. B. C. Robbins, first vice president, announced next month's program to be a discussion of the new State Arithmetic Series led by Webster Smith, Newton school principal.

Cub Pack 656-C under the direction of Scout-master Thomas Backus led the pledge of allegiance; Buglar, Tommy Backus, Color Guard, Jimmy Byrne, Bill Sturdy and Ed Farr, Flag Bearer, Ronnie Traub.

PTA Slates Atom Films

Mrs. Carl Miller presided over a meeting of the Edison PTA executive board Monday evening at the school. The board outlined plans for the coming year and set "Edison looks to the future" as the years program theme.

Future programs include a family potluck and white elephant sale at the school cafeteria November 1st at 6 p.m., and monthly Saturday morning cartoon shows to be held at the school.

The first general meeting of the Edison PTA is scheduled for Wednesday evening, October 9, at the school. The meeting will feature two films: "Atomic Alert" and "Atoms and the Doctor." Teachers will be introduced to the parents.
