

New Dress Shop Opens

Women of the South Bay area will be pleased to learn of the opening of Ruth Griffin's Apparel shop, 3810 Pacific Coast Highway, Waverly.

The shop will have a complete line of the latest fashions, including cocktail dresses, suits, sportswear, hats and lingerie. Such names as Don Loper, Anne Fogarty, Jackie Morgan and Beaumelle Originals will be featured, as well as Darlene sweaters, Bette Norbet skirts and capri pants, and many other fine lines.

She will also have a complete line of Hobe jewelry. These fashions will be shown at the Push Horse, on Friday, November 1 at 12:30 p.m. The formal opening will take place on November 1 and 2. Everyone is invited to drop in and look around.

Mrs. Griffin, who resides with her husband in Hollywood Riviera, is also the owner of Malzie's Fashions, at the corner of Imperial and Western ave., in Los Angeles.

Lomita Youth With Army on Okinawa

Pvt. Ralph W. Davenport Jr., whose father lives at 26044 Oak st., Lomita, recently arrived on Okinawa and is now assigned to the U.S. Army Military Police Group, Ryukyu Islands.

Davenport, son of Mrs. Geneva F. Schwartz, 8518 Otto st., Downey, entered the Army in April 1957 and received basic training at Fort Ord.

He is a 1956 graduate of Paramount High school and a former employee of Roth's Market in Bellflower.

a one-act opera, and other choral music. He attended UCLA his freshman and sophomore years and last year attended UC at Berkeley. While there he went with the University Glee club on a month's concert tour of Japan and has been invited to return to work in Japan upon graduation.

He sang recently with the Roger Wagner Chorale.

With soloist, featured composer, and conductor all residents of this area, the Civic Symphony is once more carrying out the theme of promoting local talent and giving them a chance to display their work on the stages of South Bay.

In December the orchestra will present the third Christmas Pantomime "The Nutcracker Prince" involving hundreds of local dancers, actors, and musicians. New players are always welcomed to the Symphony rehearsal on Monday evening at 7:30 in the music room at Redondo High. Elyse Achle is the conductor of the Civic Symphony.

$50 BOUNTY ON LITTER BUGS

The Board of Supervisors this week put up a $50 bounty for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the new breed of critters roaming the highways—the litterbugs.

Along with it, the supervisors voted to put up 1,500 signs along the highways to call attention to the reward offer.
