

McMaster Park Juniors Lead Tough Grid League

The Recreation Department touch football program was in full swing last week with the McMaster Park Juniors still leading the pack by a narrow margin. They overcame a strong WALTERIA "B" last Monday 13-0.

Bill Westerman, Jim Bald, and Bob Turner cornered the WALTERIA boys with series of perfectly executed pass plays. The first TD was a Westerner to Bald pass play from 10 yards out. In the second quarter, Bald hit Turner for 20 yards, and paydirt to clinch the game. Bill Schonart from WALTERIA was a demon on defense with interceptions and perfect coverage on pass plays.

The same McMaster "B" traveled to Torrance Tuesday night only to meet a stubborn bunch of gridders there. It was a nip and tuck affair all of the way with the game ending 12-12.

The McMaster boys drew first blood in the second quarter with a Lewis Cook to Jim Bald TD play that traveled 40 yards. Torrance Park came roaring back in the third quarter when Dave Travelstead hit Harold Mathews with a perfect 30 yard pass play for six points. McMaster came back strong in the fourth quarter with a Darold Hayden to Cook aerial play from 12 yards out. Immediately after this the Torrance twosome - Travelstead to Mathews scored again on pass play from two yards out.

The Falcons from Torrance Park swamped the Pelicans 36-6 Thursday night. Walt Malonek, Jim O'Neil, Jim O'Hara, Bill Schort and Tim O'Conner all figured in running the tally up. The Pelicans drew the first score when Duane Wyrick went all the way on the kick-off. The Falcons settled the score a few minutes later when Malonek pitched to Schort.

In the third quarter, Malonek ran the ball over from 15 yards out to increase the score. In the fourth quarter the roof fell in when the Falcons pushed over 20 points with O'Conner scoring two TD's and Schort once. PEE WEES:

In the Pee Wee division at Torrance Park the Bankers, led by Garry Brown, Willie Baker and Donnie Coll, defeated the Eagles 29-0.

In the second game of the day Hesters Jesters beat out a 20-6 decision over the Dagos when Patrick Feney, Marty Halley and Lyn Archebald ganged up. Rudy Beltran scored the lone TD in a losing cause.

At McMaster Park, the Rams beat the Panthers 20-0 as Dennis Bush, John Alexander, and Richard Peters took turns at scoring. Joe Day ran back a beautiful 40 yard TD punt in the second quarter.

In the second game the Vikings, led by Cary Hubert, swamped the Bruins 34-2. Hubert had help from Kenny Gorman, Jeff Bell, Don Jenkins, Mike Jacobs, Skipper Monney and Kenny Burge. The lone Bruin score came when Rex Evans tagged Pee Welch for a safety in the third quarter.

The 49ers lost out to the Spitfires 28-0. Steve Pophoff, Dick Webster, Danny Vandervart, Ronnie Siremel ganged up on the Prospectors when each scored a touchdown.

In the Bantam league, the

Ten Battle for Bowling Lead

Southern California All-Star eliminations at the Bowl-O-Drome Saturday brought ten leaders into competition for top honors. They were:

Bettler, 2258; Lauman, 2208; Holmes, 2200; DeMichek, 2178; Winfield, 2113; Scalzo, 2109; Prince, 2097; Ricilli, 2012; Hoyt, 1968; Myers, 1900. The group will return here November 9 to continue the competition.

Series honors in the Pittsburg Plate Glass Co. league go to R. Hester with his 653 and A. Jackson for her 635. Individual games honors are listed for A. Hanson, 255 and M. Crowner, 223.

Stars Bite Tigers in Grid League

Paced by the alert field general, Ronnie Stugart, the Stars rolled over the winless Tigers 33-0. Steven Van Camp raced around end on the first play of the game and the Cortezman were off to the races. Richard Bartoni and Delton Kerns stopped the Tigers cold with their terrific defensive play.

In the second game played, the Rainiers defeated the Oaks 13 to 6. Bill Epps and Carl Smith raced for touchdowns for the winners. The Oaks caught fire in the late stages of the game and scored on a pass from Kent Swain to Henry Ramirez.

Teen-Age Golf Club Planned

The Sea-Aire golf course at 22730 Lupine St. will reopen November 2 after the construction of protective fencing. At the same time plans for a Teen-Age Golf club to promote golf and to provide co-ed activities were announced by Edith Simpelaar of the Torrance Recreation Department. Tentative program for the group include golf practice, instruction, tournament play and social activities for teen-agers.

A steering committee now being formed will hold a meeting Thursday, November 7 at 4 p.m. at Sea Aire park.

Tartars Primed for Scrap With Inglewood Friday

by DICK RICE
Looking for their second win in a row tomorrow night, the Tartars will journey to Inglewood High to meet the Sentinals in a Bay league contest that may be the toughest one yet.

Inglewood, last week, made a track meet of it against Leuzinger, winning 27 to 6. The Sentinals are now tied for third place right behind Torrance, and eager to move up.

The Tartar offense will be guided by quarterback, Ron Veres, with halfbacks, Roger Reed, Manford Mainer, and Stuart Gonta packing the ball. Pulling in passes will be ends Mike Gonta, Harold Davis, and Richard Ford.

Tartar prospects improved with the return of two regulars. Halfback Bobby Grajeda's broken foot has healed, and he may be back in uniform for tomorrow's game. Guard Dan White is back on his feet after suffering a broken tibia earlier in the season.
