Mrs. Robert W. Magnuson
Rox Ann Johnson Becomes

Miss Rox Ann Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Linden Johnson, 26323 President ave., Harbor City, became the bride of Robert W. Magnuson, in a candlelight ceremony in the sanctuary of the Western Avenue Baptist church, on October 26, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Magnuson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Magnuson, Long Beach. The bride's father led her to the altar, which was decorated with white candles and baskets of red gladiolas. Rev. Walter Graham officiated at the double ring service.

For the wedding the bride wore an embroidered satin gown, the bodice had a sweetheart neckline trimmed with a tiny ruffle of tulle edging and three-quarter length sleeves. The chapel length skirt was the same embroidered satin, slit to the waist in front, to reveal tiers of pleated tulle. Her bridal veil was held in place by a jeweled crown and she carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis on a white Bible.

Mrs. B. J. Dunnington, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mmes. Jerry Farrar, Carl Magnuson, Jr., and Russell McDaniel. All wore ballerina length gowns of white lace, and jeweled crowns, with red satin shoes and bouquets of red gladiolas carrying out the color scheme of red and white.

Tiny Lonnie Lou Berke in a copy of the bridesmaids' gowns, was flower girl and Ronnie Berke was ring bearer. Tyra Womac and Janice Gordon lit the candles and Diane Ruchel was soloist.

After a reception held in the church hall the couple left for a ten day honeymoon trip.

To Hold Auditions for
'The Nutcracker Prince'

The Civic Symphony Association announces auditions for the two leading roles in the Christmas "Pantomime," "The Nutcracker Prince," following the custom of awarding the two most important parts in the show to contestants.

Applications are being accepted for the part of the "Nutcracker Prince" and the equally important part of "Mary".

Young people, boys and girls, from 10 to 18 years of age are eligible. The Christmas Show will be the next event, following the Symphony concert November 8 at 8 p.m. at Redondo High school with Elyse Aehle conducting.

The auditions for leads will be held on November 10. All desiring to participate should write to the Civic Symphony.
