

RONALD WAYNE CHANDLER Portrait By Seeman

Linda Lee Bohannon Weds Ronald Wayne Chandler

On December 22 at 2 p.m. friends and relatives assembled at the Torrance Church of God to hear Linda Lee Bohannon and Ronald Wayne Chandler exchange marriage promises in a double ring ceremony.

Rev. George Broome performed the ceremony which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bohannon, 1435 Vest 223rd st., and the son of Mrs. Christine Johnson of Columbus, Ga., and Robert Chandler of Twinsburg, Ohio.

Costumed in a chapel length gown of white lace over satin, the bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her father. Her illusion veil was held in place by a bandeau of orange blossoms and she carried white orchids.

Maid of honor was a sister, Barbara Sue Bohannon, who wore a frock of yellow lace over taffeta and carried blue carnations. Her bridesmaid

Jeannine Bechtold wore a similar gown of pale blue lace over taffeta and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

Smoky Brooks was best man and ushering guests to their places were Dale Hall and Jimmy Bohannon.

Carol Nolley, soloist, sang 'I Love You Truly' and 'The Lord's Prayer,' accompanied by Mrs. George Broome at the piano. Janet Ragland was in charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Earl Combs, Fresno, and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Palm and daughter, Vicki, from McFarland.

A reception was held at the YMCA with the couple leaving immediately afterward for a honeymoon trip to Big Bear.

The bride graduated from Narbonne High school in 1957, and Mr. Chandler attended school in Georgia and is serving with the U.S. Navy.

Fashion Fun

By MAUDE MILLER

A New Year, A New You!
 "No one ever regarded the first of January with indifference!" Thus spoke an English poet many long years ago... and how true it rings in our ears today! We may feel like Scrooge about Christmas, ignore Thanksgiving, deplore all holidays. But the bells of the New Year toll for us all.

That's why it's such particular fun to get particularly dressed up to greet the infant year. With sparkling eyes (daringly but judiciously mascaraed), bright face (brightened by one of the new RED lipsticks), and charming gown (sack shape or full skirted)... we're bound to have fun!

And that "fun with fashion" feeling is bound to continue all through the new year! Trends have settled down... and we can forecast with much assurance the styles you'll be seeing and buying all through the rest of winter and into spring and summer.

First, a gentle reminder, Gentle Reader... if you would have the freshest, gayest, newest spring clothes... select them now from the resort lines the shops are stocking. We know that old bills sometimes linger as long as old memories... but as soon as Christmas has been paid for, it's nice to start the New Year... with a new dress!

What's Newest
 In color... colorful prints are plentiful now, and will blossom in all their glory through the months to come. Best colors are and will be: Sharp lemon yellow, blazing orange, hot blues and tropical pinks. Also, hotter than ever... flame reds and cool mint greens!

And... there's always white! As distinguished as the right sort of black, the "little white dress" can be the perfect filler for that gap in every woman's wardrobe... the "pick me up" to wear everywhere!

In shape... everything's the ship shape! Quite literally. Sailor collars, middy type overblouses, and naval accents will be found in smart outfits for all ages.

The sheath continues to slice its slim way to outstanding popularity... whether in the loosely fitted, no waist-line type, or in the lined, tucked and shaped sort. Don't sell the "sack" short... because if you wear it short, as it's meant to be worn, it's a mighty fetching fashion!

And... if you haven't worn a jumper since pigtail days... now's your time to shed a few years and fit your New Year self into this most feminine style... accompanied by a spanking white well tailored shirt.

Summing up... Dame Fashion, for 1958, has a slim, well-bred, yet comfortable easy look. And she still loves a well made shirtmaker (with or without full skirt)... as we all do!

Maybe next year we'll be forecasting fashions for Sputnik passengers... but for this year we wish you Health Happiness, Peace... and Fashion Fun!

BONFIRE

A community Christmas tree bonfire will be held at Normandale playground, 224th st., and Halldale ave., on Monday, January 6, 7 p.m.

SUMMER WEDDING

Mrs. Shirley Jean Hale, 24619 Madison ave., is announcing the engagement of her daughter, Lynne Kathleen Edgar, to John Raymond Ronhovde, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ronhovde, 1613 Acacia. The engagement was announced to members of the family at a Christmas Eve dinner gathering. The marriage will take place next summer. A senior at Torrance High school, the bride-elect also works at the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Ronhovde is employed by the General Telephone company.

Piano Teacher Gives Party

Lois Baisley, local piano teacher, entertained a group of students at her home, 617 W. 214th st., for the annual 'Playing of the Carols.' The gay Christmas decorations included the ceramic Santa Claus orchestra, a traditional feature for many years. After playing the music learned especially for the occasion, the children enjoyed punch and cookies.

Those attending the party were Patsy Williams, Mary Helen Argueta, Joyce Goree, Janice Heinkel, Linda Mehl, Sandy Bates and Star Marco.

Others were Marie Calise, Becky Gascon, Rita Bandalan, John Elliott, Marcia Atchison, Yvonne Lye, Stephen Deering, Mary Kathryn Carey, Robert Elliot, Floydell Clark, Joan Sebastian and Edna Gardner.

Twins Celebrate

Gloria and Georgia Ann Slater, Hollywood Riviera, were feted on their 21st birthday last week at the Marineland restaurant.

The twin girls were honored by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Slater.
