

You just can't beat the prices at a fab

Food Giant's prices are the lowest prices consistent with quality. And the reason for our low prices is no mystery, no secret, no magic... it's just simple arithmetic and logic. Food Giant sells more groceries (and things) than any other grocery store in the community. The more we sell, the more economically we can do business. The more economically we do business, the cheaper we can sell merchandise. Simple, isn't it? Better come on in this weekend and start taking advantage of us.
