

Handy Illustrated Index of Local Business Firms

Not satisfied with just serving especially good food, Archie, owner of Archie's Coffee Shop, 17430 Crenshaw Blvd., constantly strives for unusually fine service. The waitresses at Archie's are all "vice presidents in charge of fast, friendly service," and do their best to live up to their titles. Just for fun, Archie's will be keeping a scoreboard for the Dodgers. When the Dodgers win, there will be a bouquet of flowers; but when they lose, there will be a wreath. Children love to eat at Archie's, for when they clean their plates, they can pick a lollipop from the lollipop tree. The whole family would enjoy a meal out at Archie's. The food is excellent; the service is fast, friendly, and cheerful; the surroundings are modern, clean, and pleasant. For breakfast, lunch or dinner, for orders to go; or for snacks in between, you can't miss at Archie's, corner of Crenshaw and Artesia, next to Walter's Drug and Foods Co. Market.

The background materials in any home creates the atmosphere of living, and in the homes of today, draperies are one of the largest parts of the background. Joseph and Edith Ennis, owners of J. & E. Draperies, 2716 Redondo Beach Blvd., have been creating lovely draperies for the past 9 years. They and their staff of interior decorators are ready to assist you in choosing the right material and style. All work is finished meticulously in their own spacious workrooms. They also make cornices, and carry five lines of carpeting to make selection of coordinated materials easier. J. & E. Draperies are one of the four largest drapery manufacturers in the Los Angeles area. Visit their showroom at 2716 Redondo Beach Blvd., or, if convenient, drop in at their new shop at 24217 Hawthorne Blvd. Call FRontier 9-6044 or FRontier 8-4551 for a complimentary estimate. They are open six days a week from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and evenings by appointment.
