Study Plan For Torrance Branch

City Attorney Stanley Remelmeier was encouraged by the City Council to continue study of a program under which Torrance may obtain a Superior Court.

Remelmeier reported that a study is currently under way to determine the feasibility of creating Superior Court branch districts, each to serve a population of 300,000.

"The city should offer a civic center site for the court," declared Councilman Nickolas O. Drale.

Mayor Albert Isen agreed. "We are the hub of the harbor area and the court should be located here," he said.

Lomita-San Pedro Council PTA

By Mrs. Richard Groverman
Mrs. David Williams, Lomita-San Pedro PTA Council record book chairman, recently held a record book workshop in her home. Excellent advice and instructions were given for the preparation and compiling of the yearly PTA record books by Mrs. Williams, assisted by Mrs. H. A.
