Naomi Likins-Sgt. J. C. Willis Jr. Are Wed by Bride's Father

Given in marriage by her mother, in a double ring ceremony officiated by her father, Miss Naomi Likins, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Likins, 320 First st., was married at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, March 1st. The groom was Sgt. J. C. Willis Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Willis, Beaumont, Texas.

Baskets of flowers and candles graced the altar.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white satin, with lace yoke and sleeves, a tier of lace falling in scallops from points below the waist, over a tier of net. The full skirt flowed from a princess style waist.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Dana Cecil Jordan. She wore a floor length dress of blue lace and net, with a cascade of blue carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Helen Stock and Miss Janice Mills, dressed in gowns fashioned like that of the matron, in pink and yellow, respectively, with carnation cascades.

Little Debbie Caughern, wearing floor length gown of lilac, scattered pink petals down the aisle.

The groom was attended by Clem Haines.

Ringbearer was little Danny Likins.

Following the reception, held in Keystone Fellowship hall, the couple left on a ten day honeymoon. The new home will be at Oceanview.

The groom is a member of the military police and cross-country patrol.

Torrance Council PTA

Subliminal advertising — a method by which messages are flashed on television and movie screens for such a short time that the eye doesn't register the idea but the subconscious mind does — was presented to members of the Torrance Council PTA as its open meeting this week as a development with which PTA units should concern themselves.

Mrs. R. R. Bardick, radio and television chairman for the local PTA council, spoke on the outcomes of this method of advertising.

Mrs. Kenneth McVey was elected to succeed Mrs. D. D. Tuggle as president of the council for the coming year. Mrs. McVey has served as first vice president under Mrs. Tuggle's administration.

Elected to serve with the new president were Mrs. Carl Cramer, first vice president; Mrs. William Poger, second vice president; Mrs. Jack Erving, third vice president; and Mrs. Seth Warden, fourth vice president.

Other officers elected at the meeting include Mrs. Leonard Spedole, recording secretary; Mrs. F. Malone, corresponding secretary; Mrs. V. B. Terry, financial secretary; Mrs. Gene Vorhees, historian; and Mrs. Ronald Stamm, auditor.

Receiving honorary life memberships were Mrs. Ethel Lewis, home teacher for the school district since it was organized in 1947; and Mrs. J. B. Mosley, active in the founding of the American Field Service student program in Torrance.

Mrs. Lewis was cited for her work with Torrance school children who are taught in their homes because of disabilities, and was praised for remembering birthdays with parties, gifts, and other observances — always at her own expense.

Mrs. Mosley, in addition to her work with the American Field Service International Student program, is a past president of the United Council of Church Women, was churchwoman of the year in 1957, and has been active in many youth groups.

Past presidents of the Council and recipients of honorary life memberships were honored at the meeting.
