

Teachers Honor 4 Organizations

Four leading Los Angeles organizations were named today by the Affiliated Teacher Organizations of Los Angeles to receive honors for their service to youth at ATOLA's Eighth Annual Awards Banquet March 13 at the Statler Hotel, according to Marie Bunch of Torrance, who is serving on the awards committee.

The Native Daughters of the Golden West, the Hathaway Home for Children, the Kiwanis Club of Los Angeles and the Audubon Center of Southern California, National Audubon Society, will be honored for their contributions in various fields.

B-I-E DAY PLANNERS—Fred E. R. Trueblood, Chamber president. Teachers will be guests of Chamber at annual affair.

ON THE SCENE
with
HANK WOLLMAN

This decade the most popular greeting of the day is "What's new?", while the usual reply almost always goes something like "Nothing much." But at Del's Camino Room the casual "What's new?" will bring a flood of news.

First, there's a new trio entering on weekends; second, dancing is once more part of the evening scene; and last but not least, reservations are now being taken for another rousing bus party to sunny Mexico and Aqua Caliente.

The Don Holmes trio, the new group which started at Del's this past weekend, is a mellow sounding outfit consisting of saxophone, vibes and bass which makes for easy listening and smooth dancing.

And for those of you who enjoy outings but find picnics dull, then by all means make your reservations now for the March 23 bus party. You'll leave bright and early Sunday morn on a plush bus stocked with everything you need for a fun-filled day in the land below the border. (For gaudy details call Del's.)

NAMES IN THE NIGHT:
Harold Peary, better known as the Great Gildersleeve, who is a steady fan of the wonderful Tai Song restaurant in Manhattan Beach; Fred Martello, the daytime tender of the Vegas Club on Vermont, who is neck and neck with his cousin Bob in the balloting for Gardena's most glamorous "dispenser of the grape"; Sally Stephens, a pretty redhead hostess at the popular Monterey Cafe, who celebrated birthday 21 again in the Southland (a native daughter); the mysterious J. Green (better known to her friends as Jan), who so enjoys the unusual and charming Kyoto's on Western; Ted Campbell, the versatile keyboard artist, who is the popular piano-bar personality at Harold Gelber's Plush Horse; Bob Watson, the "top dog" of the Dixie Cats, who packed them in again for the fourth consecutive weekend at the Alondra Inn on Crenshaw; Bert Hanson, the ex-Milwaukee "Brave," who is the stylish bass man (not baseman) with the solid Frankie Ortega trio at the Melody Room on the Sunset Strip.

Get ready for a party! Next Thursday the anniversary celebration starts at Helen Yue's restaurant in Gardena. As part of the festivities everyone will share in the luscious appetizers served on bamboo sticks, the delicious oriental candies and the surprise giveaways that will mark this occasion. There will be new decorations about the restaurant and all the waitresses will be smartly dressed in attractive new mandarin jackets. And best of all, there will be a whole series of special Cantonese dishes offered for the first time.

Check Harbor College Campus
Edith M. Clark, Assistant Superintendent in charge of junior colleges in the Los Angeles City Schools, visited Harbor College yesterday for the purpose of planning future campus development to be made possible if voters approve passage of school bonds in the coming June third election.

If the bonds are passed with a two-thirds majority, present crowded conditions at Harbor will be ameliorated by the addition of a new science building, several classroom bungalows, a special bungalow for presentation of plays and programs, a soil grading plan for the entire campus, and the creation of additional parking space.

BASEBALL TRYOUTS
North Torrance Babe Ruth Baseball League tryouts will be held on the North High diamond, March 22 and 29, at 10 a.m. until 3 p.m.

All North Torrance boys who are 13, 14, or 15 are urged to try out for the team.

Supervisors Ask Inspection All School Buses

On a motion of Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, the board of supervisors has instructed the County Counsel to press vigorously for enactment of special legislation to extend the same protection to private and parochial school buses as is now given public school buses.

Supervisor Hahn pointed out that a special session on the proposed school bus safety law is on the agenda. It would require the Highway Patrol to inspect all school buses, whether public or private, before they would be allowed to operate.

Gas Official to Give Major Talk on B-I-E Day

Dr. Cecil L. Dunn of Southern Counties Gas Company of California will be the featured speaker at the opening session of Torrance's first city-wide Business-Industry-Education Day Monday.

The meeting will start at 9 a.m. in the Torrance High School Auditorium according to General Chairman Fred Brunner of the sponsoring Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

Following welcome from Chamber, City and School officials, Dr. Dunn will deliver an address on the American Enterprise System as it relates to education.

At 10 a.m., the 823 teachers will be hosted by 60 Torrance firms for tours, conferences and luncheon. Assisting Brunner are other members of the Chamber's Education Committee: Dr. Warren Hamilton, Glenn Koger, Fred Todd, Darwin Parrish and Lyle Albro.
