

Salvation Army Will Organize South Bay Women's Auxiliary

The Salvation Army Corps of Redondo Beach, are planning the formation of a Women's Auxiliary to the Salvation Army Corps for the South Bay Area, including Redondo Beach, Manhattan and Hermosa Beaches, Torrance and all surrounding cities.

They feel that in having a Women's Auxiliary to the Corps, they will be able to render better service to the community.

Mrs. Robert S. Magness, prominent club woman who has been identified for many years with the Los Angeles Charities and other clubs of Los Angeles, is thought to be best fitted to form this Auxiliary as she was the founder of the Women's Auxiliary to the Salvation Army Day Nursery, and was very successful under her leadership.

Mrs. Magness was their first president and served two years, she is on the Advisory Committee of the Day Nursery and on the Los Angeles Advisory Board of the Salvation Army.

Lt. George L. Hansen, Commanding Officer of the Salvation Army Corps, has commissioned Mrs. Magness to form this Auxiliary. Those who will assist her in this work are Mrs. L. George L. Hansen, Alta Van Loosbrock and Jess P. Hansen.

Five hundred invitation letters have been sent out to women in the Bay Area, to become charter members. Since it is difficult to reach everyone, it has been suggested that those interested in becoming a charter member contact the Salvation Army Corps Center Redondo, P.O. 25323.

Every woman in the Bay Area can participate as there will be different programs for every one to their liking, including the Golden Age group (elderly ladies).

Church Crusade Brings Good Attendance Mark

The first Sunday of the Gardena Valley "Go-To-Church Crusade" brought a total of 10,455 persons out to church last Sunday according to reports from the 19 Protestant churches cooperating in the house to house calling campaign conducted last week. Every home received a personal invitation to attend a church of their choice.

Calvary Baptist Church of Gardena led with a total of 1,297. First Methodist Church made a close second with 1,208, and South Bay Church of God was third with 943. "The every-home calling campaign made this achievement possible," said the Rev. Clifford Tierney, pastor of the South Bay Church of God, and president of the Gardena Valley Ministerial Association. "Our callers worked very hard to cover all of the territory assigned. It is hoped that others in Gardena Valley will make a special effort to attend the church of their choice during the Pre-Easter season."

Two Good Friday services are planned by the Association for April 11th from 12 noon to 2 p.m. The meetings will be held at First Methodist Church, 812 W. 165th pl. and at Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd. Local ministers will participate in the services which will be on the theme: "Personalities of the Passion."

Taking part in the conference, which was designed to promote world-wide brotherhood, were foreign exchange students and American students who have visited behind the Iron Curtain. "Physics and Philosophy" will be the topic of Dr. Harry A. Shuler's address at Sunday services of the Pacific Unitarian Church Society.
