Triple-T Dance Club to Have Guest Night at Portuguese Bend

Guest Night dance of Triple-T Dance club, to be held in the Garden Room of the Portuguese Bend Club, Saturday evening, April 12th, promises to be one of the social highlights of the season for the 40 member couples and their guests.

Keith Forbes Orchestra has been engaged to play for the 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. dancing.

An innovation will be the gathering of members and their guests, in one place, for the pre-dancing cocktail hour, which will be held this time at the same place as the dancing party. It has previously been the custom for members to gather in small groups at the various homes.

June Event
The annual out-of-town dance is planned this year as the culmination of the season, in June, at the Circle J Ranch in Saugus, Newhall.

Triple-T club has been organized 26 years and has 40 couples who get together monthly for dancing, except during the summer months. Parties have been so entertaining that nearly all the couples attend each one.

The dancing parties are held at a different place each time, all save the last of the season, in the local territory.

Fashion Fun

By MAUDE MILLER

Spring Fever

Officially it's Spring, actually it's wet, and truthfully we've had quite a fever. But now we're ready for the "World of Fashion" . . . if not for the world, still a little wobbly from the flu . . . but our eye for fashion and fun remains as firmly fixed as ever.

There was a great quantity of both at the annual Academy Award affair the other night. Interesting to note that our glamour girls of Hollywood turned their backs firmly on the new French look. There wasn't a "trapeze" or "baby doll" gown in the whole glittering spectacle . . . and not one chemise on screen! Zsa Zsa Gabor at first seemed to be swathed in her own unique version of the "em-pire negligee" look . . . but on her second entrance her extended hands clutched most of the excess drapery . . . and showed the svelte black sheath below to better advantage. Let's face it . . . gal looks better on camera when her shape is showing!

As delightful M. C. Bob Hope said about the chemise dresses, "A woman doesn't have to wear a skin tight dress . . . but she at least ought to state her intentions!" Talking about skin tight and shapes . . . Kim Novak was a literally shining example of both. Her strapless, dark purple sequined gown was revealingly slit to the knee in front. Judging by the way she walked, if our skin were as tight as that outfit . . . a gal could never even move her arms! Attractive? Well, frankly, Marlene Dietrich is the only one we know who could wear a dress like that and look like a lady!

Fashion Forecasts
Accessories are becoming more and more important to the fashion picture, and to the total YOU! That's because dresses are simple in line, and clothes in general for Spring and Summer will be understated both as to line and detail.

So . . . DO get yourself a colorful, gay natural straw hat with ribbons or bands to change with each outfit!

DO invest in multi-color or paisley print shoes which are marvelous with white and perfect with pastels!

DO buy the charming small clutch bags to match shoes . . . or to stand alone as dramatic color accent. We've never seen a better selection of "happy looking" hats, shoes and bags . . . proof of what we've been saying all along. Fashion can be fun!

Juniors Enjoy Western Party

Over 50 Junior Women's Club members, dressed in cowboy, and deputy sheriff attire, enjoyed the Western style party given in the clubhouse Wednesday evening.

The clubrooms had been converted into a western ranch with chuck wagon, camp fires, lanterns and wagon wheels.

A chuck wagon dinner was served after which guests enjoyed group games.

Hostesses for the co-ordinators party were A. F. R. Ewalt, Mrs. L. A. McCoy and Mrs. W. O. Clausen of the Senior club.

Special guest of the evening was Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, Senior club president.

Brownie Troop 404

Brownie Troop 404, sponsored by Madrona PTA enjoyed a snow trip with their parents to Lake Gregory, where they roasted hot dogs. From the lake they went on to Snow Valley where lots of fun was in store.
