Live Theater Is Introduced to Local Children

A Beanstalk that climbs high into the clouds, a hen that lays eggs, a glittering, golden harp that speaks when summoned by its master... these are only a few of the many magical wonders to be seen in the recent stage success at the Hermosa Beach Playhouse on the Pier in Hermosa Beach.

For the first time many youngsters are seeing their first full scale, legitimate play, presented especially for them by the Children's Theatre. "Jack and the Beanstalk" is proving to be a perfect introduction to the excitement of live theatre.

Bill Ewing of Torrance captivates every audience with his thundering, blundering portrayal of the giant, and Pat Bennett, also of Torrance, highlights the cast with her delightful characterization of old Tyb.

Director Don Stubbs has arranged an added thrill for attending children by giving them a chance to meet each member of the cast after the show.

The Magic maker, elfishly played by Bob Swofford, presents each child with a tiny package of "magic" beans as a memento of the show.

"Jack and the Beanstalk" will continue playing for two more weekends of Saturday and Sunday matinees... curtain time at 1:00 and 3:00 p.m. each day. Reservations may be made at FR. 6-3303 or FR. 44400. Special rates are made for groups of 10 or more children.

Gala Chicken-Asparagus Casserolettes

The "girls" will adore this novel food combination and the men will relish the wonderful chicken-mushroom flavor. You make these casserolettes early in the day so you're relaxed and pretty at party time. Each casserolette has a bubbly golden cheese topping. Underneath are layers of tender green asparagus, succulent chicken and tender white rice.

INGREDIENTS:
 2 cups cooked white rice
 1/4 cup chopped pimientos
 8 spears cooked asparagus
 1 to 1 1/3 cups diced cooked chicken
 1/3 cup milk
 1, 10 1/2 oz. can condensed cream of mushroom soup
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon black pepper

METHOD: Grease four 10 oz. individual baking dishes. Place 1/2 cup cooked rice in each baking dish. Divide the pimiento between the four baking dishes. Halve the asparagus spears and divide between baking dishes. Top with the chicken. Mix together the milk, mushroom soup, salt and black pepper. Pour over the chicken. Divide the cheese between the baking dishes, sprinkling it over the soup. Cover and store in the refrigerator. At meal time, allow dishes to come to room temperature before placing in a 375° F. oven. Bake about 30 minutes or until the top melts and begins to brown. This recipe makes 4 generous servings.
