Pitchess Names Torrance Leaders

Bob Higgins and Charles P. McCann, for years Torrance area civic leaders, have been appointed to city's co-chairmen of the Committee to Elect Pete Pitchess Sheriff, it was announced today by General Campaign Chairman T. R. Knudsen.

McCann said the sheriff of the nation's largest sheriff's department "must be a capable administrator." "Undersheriff Pitchess has proven his ability as the second-highest ranking officer in the department," McCann added.

Higgins and McCann said they accepted the co-chairmanship because of Undersheriff Pitchess' outstanding record as a law enforcement officer.

"Pete Pitchess' 12 years as an FBI agent and his five years as undersheriff make him the logical man to succeed retiring Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz," Higgins said.
