Temple Service Will Honor Mrs. Anna Grancell

Regular Friday evening services at Temple Menorah, 112 Catalina, in Redondo Beach, will become a celebration in honor of the 76th birthday of Mrs. Anna Grancell, whose husband Isaac H. Grancell, was one of the founders of the Temple.

The service will begin at 8:30 with a talk by Rabbi Henry E. Front on "The Spirit of '76". A reception for Mrs. Grancell will follow with hostesses, Clair Bloom, Marcy Schumacher, Helen Brandwine and Judi Sochet.

Preceding the temple service Mrs. Grancell is being honored at a 6 o'clock dinner at the Plush Horse.

Guest Speaker at Scientist Church

The Redondo Beach Church of Religious Science will present Dr. W. Ralph Lowe, guest speaker, Wednesday evening April 23rd, at 8 o'clock in the church classroom. This is the occasion of the monthly 4th Wednesday Evening Lectures.

Dr. W. Ralph Lowe is widely known on the Pacific Coast as an eloquent speaker, a trained metaphysician, a wise teacher and an experienced practitioner.

Throughout Southern California Dr. Lowe is well known for his work with the Drama Workshop in Santa Monica. His most recent characterization with this group has been that of "Padre Ricardo" in the play "Romance in Old Monterey".

There is no charge for admission, but a free will offering will be taken.

Refreshments will be served and a social hour will follow the lecture.

Watch for Special page on April 17th in Honor of National Realtor Week April, 13th to 19th.

Calvary Baptist Announcements

The Rev. H. Earl Kuester, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., will speak at the duplicate services 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. on "Temporary Trials or Everlasting Destruction". This is an expository study of the first chapter of the Apostle Paul's second Epistle to the Thessalonian Church. At 7:30 p.m. Mr. Kuester will bring a message on "Where I should Draw the Line". This will be a frank discussion of biblical principles which will help a Christian to decide upon the rightness or wrongness of his conduct.

Today and tonight all circles of the Woman's Society will meet in homes. On Friday evening at 7:30, parents and pupils of the 11 a.m. Junior department of the Sunday School will meet in the Blue Room for a program on "Camping this Summer" presented by Mrs. Sorella Dunagan, Camping Chairman and Mr. Paul McAllister, Superintendent of the department.

On Sunday evening from 5 to 6 p.m. Mrs. Dunagan and Mr. Charles Ramsey, superintendent, will meet with the 9:45 Junior department parents and pupils for the same program.

To Conference

On Saturday, 14 Sunday School teachers and workers will attend the Observation School being held at First Baptist Church of South Gate. This school is under the direction of the Southern California Baptist department of Christian Education. Also on Saturday, the president and vice-president of the College Age Youth Fellowship and of the Senior High Youth Fellowship, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison, will go to 1000 Pines Camp for a Training Conference.

On Monday evening the 14th, the Order of Andrew will meet for their monthly calling program in the community. On Tuesday evening the 15th, the Senior High and Junior High Guild Fellowships will hold a joint meeting at the home of Diane Waymire, Dana Cay Roberts hostess. Miss Jane Gahs of the Los Angeles Baptist City Mission Society will present pictures and a talk on the Missionary work of the denomination in the L.A. area.

Lutheran Women To Have Narcotics Talk

The Women's Missionary Federation of Christ the King Lutheran church, 2706 W. 182nd st. will meet at the church at 8 p.m. Tuesday April 15.

L.I. Cook of the Juvenile Bureau will speak on "Narcotics and the Juvenile Problem".

Husbands of members and the Luther Leaguers are invited to hear the talk.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mmes. J. R. Wols, M. D. Midthun, Pete Muller, Bob Gundersen, C. B. Dillard and Warren Bachmann.

Observe Church Anniversary

Fourth anniversary Sunday of entering the new chapel unit of South Bay Baptist church, will be celebrated Sunday, April 13.

The church members formerly met at El Retiro park until erecting their own buildings. It was April 18, 1954 when the presently used church was first occupied and members are jubilant over the fact that they are now completing their fourth unit.

Lutherans Plan Evening Bible Study Hour

A new Sunday evening Bible study hour will begin at Park View Lutheran Church Sunday, April 13 at 7 p.m. This will be an informal opportunity for members to study the Bible and have a period of inspiration and fellowship together.

The first book to be studied will be the Gospel of John. All are invited to share in this according to Rev. Karl Oelschlaeger the pastor.

The quarterly congregational meeting of the church will come on the same Sunday at 2 p.m. in line with an announcement by John Pergrin, president of the congregation.

Ancient Unity Problems Are Sermon Subject

"Holmes, Lincoln and Davis—Three Unitarians and their problems of Unity in 1861" will be the title of Dr. Harry A. Shuder's address at Sunday services of the Pacific Unitarian Church Society. Services begin at 11 a.m. at 1610 Acacia ave., Torrance.

Baptists Plan for Week's Activities

"What Happens when the Gospel is Preached" will be the subject of Rev. J. C. Brumfield, pastor of South Bay Baptist church, at his 11 a.m. Sunday service. His evening topic at the 7:30 service, will be "Testimonies of the Dead Who Live".

Junior church will be held at the same morning hour as adult services.

Baptist training fellowship will be at 6:30 p.m.

Following the evening service, the young people of the church will host the Conservative Baptist Association sing.

Week's Schedule

Activities for the week include the Men's Fellowship meeting, 7:30 p.m., Monday, when a Moody film "Sermons from Science" entitled "Time and Eternity" will be shown. There will also be singing, fellowship and refreshments. President A. B. Chatfield issues a welcome to all men of the church to take part in these meetings.

The quarterly rally of the Conservative Baptist Ass'n. will be held Tuesday, 9:30 a.m.—9 p.m., in the Calvary Baptist church, Whittier.

Women's missionary fellowship meetings will be held, in circles, at 7:30 p.m., Eileen Bowman circle with Mrs. Hyatt Moore, 3301 Via La Selva, Palos Verdes; Ruth Covell circle, Mrs. Ralph Halgrimson, 201 N. Irena, Redondo; Millie Kreps circle, Mrs. E. A. Cianfrini, 410 ave. E, Redondo.

Bible study and prayer service will be at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, choir rehearsal at 7:30 p.m., Thursday.

Friday and Saturday, the fifth annual youth conference will be held at the Community Baptist church, Gould lane, Manhattan Beach.

Watch next Sunday's paper for the first in a new series about Torrance-Lomita Realtors.
