Torrance Man Gets LA Chamber Executive Post

Todd H. Fast, 4718 Highgrove ave., Torrance, has been appointed public relations manager of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, Harold W. Wright, chamber general manager, announced today.

Fast, a Torrance resident since 1954, was formerly manager of community relations and the news bureau for the Northrop Division of Northrop Aircraft, Inc., Hawthorne.

A native of Ohio, Fast has served for two years as press assistant to Congressman J. Harry McGregor of Ohio in Washington, D. C.

A veteran of World War II, he was employed by two Ohio newspapers as reporter-feature writer before joining the congressman in 1950. At Northrop, Fast participated widely for more than six years in community affairs in the Centinela Valley area. He is a past president of the Hawthorne Rotary Club. He resided with his wife, Josephine, and four children, Tod, Linda, Gary and Gregory.

America's oldest public building, the Palace of the Governors in Santa Fe, New Mexico, was built by Spanish colonists in 1610 reports the Automobile Club of Southern California. It served more than 100 Spanish, Mexican and American governors, and for a twelve-year period, 1680-1692 it housed the leaders of the rebellious Pueblo Indians.
