AS REPORTED IN LIFE
April 14, 1958

The chemise—or sack, or bag—has now been around for months but arguments over it, instead of calming down, keep flaring up. Last week chemises were publicly put to the torch in editorial pages and over television, men continue to make furious attacks on the style. But it is a smash success with the women and merchants, if not all the men, of the country. Stores report that the chemise is showing up all over the U. S. women have bought the chemise in its sackiest shape and wear it several inches too long. In the West Paris collections many more flattering variations are available. And, worn properly, "The chemise, or sack, or bag" has now from unexpected sources.

Whatever your reactions here in Torrance, come down, let us show you what we have. Try them on. We have the largest selection of chemises, sackies, in all South Bay.

Los Cancioneros Rehearse Concert

Tickets go on sale this week for Los Cancioneros' Eighth Annual Choral Concert to be presented Friday and Saturday evenings, May 9 and 10, in Redondo Union High School Auditorium. Eileen Padelford of Torrance, general chairman, announced today. The concert will feature straight choral arrangements of the first half of the program, followed by a light musical of the early 1940 war years.

Don Bremer, in his third year as conductor of the South Bay chorus, is rehearsing the 35 members in selections of Brahms, Poulenc, Aaron Copland, Richard Rodgers and others. Ruth Buell, accomplished pianist of Los Angeles, will accompany the chorus at the piano.

MUSICAL MEMORIES
"The Fabulous Forties" a musical of the war years is designed to stir the musical memories of Los Cancioneros audiences in patriotic, romantic and just "fun" songs of the era.

This season the group is pleased to announce that Ray Wallace of Palos Verdes and Rolling Hills will collaborate with newcomer Orville Howland, also of Palos Verdes, in writing, producing and directing the show. Wallace has delighted audiences in the past with his colorful sets and his flair for dramatic and comedy effects in staging the second half.

As "Twenty-three Skiddoo" caused many to reminisce the gaiety of the roaring 1920's, the sketch written by Howland and Wallace will bring a smile and misty eye to viewers when they see G.I. Joes, their lingo and songs, jive, USO hits and dances. Reserved seats may be secured from members or by calling FR. 5-1693 or FR. 8-1716.

Plan Pancake Breakfast
The Women's Society of the Walteria Community Methodist Church, sponsored by the Ruth Circle, are planning to serve a public pancake breakfast Saturday, April 19.
