

Toastmasters Install New Officer Slate

More than 30 Torrance Toastmasters and their wives attended the Torrance Toastmaster 695 club induction meeting of new officers at Smith Bros. Fish Shanty on Tuesday Lewis C. Turner, Past President of Toastmaster International, was installing officer.

Robert B. White, educational vice president, Howard Hinkle, administrative vice pres., Hanley Rogers, secretary, Edwin Wheeler, treasurer, Oliver Hamilton, sergeant of arms, Bill McEwen, publicity director, Lee R. Dawson.

White, took the gavel from Virgel Steele, outgoing president, and presented him with his past president's pin, and complimented him for his outstanding job as president. White stated that he would continue the purpose of the Toastmaster Club; to aid its members to master the difficult art of public speaking, to teach them to appear effectively before a jury audience, to train them for leadership and for chairmanship in meetings of all kinds.

There is program for all ages at the YWCA—for the children of young mothers who go to the local YWCA for "ladies day out," for teenagers, including boys as well as girls, for young adults and for the older adult who may wish to participate in the Association's classes and group activities.

Mercury Dealers in March Gain

Mercury dealers in the Los Angeles district recorded substantial used car sales gains during the last 10 days of March, according to W. H. Allen, Los Angeles district sales manager for Lincoln and Mercury.

New Mercury sales jumped 45 per cent during the last 10 days of March over the same period in February. Used car sales during the month of March showed a 27.7 per cent gain over the February sales totals, Allen said.

An increase in consumer demand since the first of the year was indicated by an increase in used car sales during the last 10 days of February of 69.7 per cent over any 10-day period since January, Allen added.

Evelyn Carr Elementary

Association meeting of the Evelyn Carr Elementary School was called to order by the president, Mrs. Roland Stamm, on March 25th, in the cafeteria.

Pledge of Allegiance was led by Cub Scouts of Pack 761-C under the direction of Mrs. C. E. DeCamp. Mr. Richard Welte, principal, gave a short inspirational message.

Mrs. Stamm introduced Mrs. J. R. Sanders, North High PTA president, Mr. Don Credell, vice principal, introduced Mr. Paul Mackey and Mr. R. L. Jackman, teachers, who explained the science display. A rocket demonstration by students Dan Janowski, Ronnie Gastelum, Steve Thomas and Bill Cunery.

Mr. Welte introduced teachers of the month, Mrs. Eunice Craig, Mrs. Betty Ellsworth and Mrs. Gladis Denmark. Nominees for the next year's executive board were introduced. Association voted at this time. Mrs. Perry Bakker read highlights of the executive board meeting. Mrs. Paul Schade, parliamentarian, read recommended revisions to by-laws and standing rules.

Announcement was made that the next association meeting will be Tuesday, April 15th because of Open House falling on the regular date.

Results of the election were announced: president, Mrs. J. R. Allison; 1st vice-president, Mrs. J. R. Allison; 2nd vice president, Mrs. Wendell Towell; 3rd vice president, Mrs. Carl Johnson; 4th vice president, Mrs. Merle Love; treasurer, Mrs. Albert Pesola; recording secretary, Mrs. Robert Dennis; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jean Vance; historian, Mrs. Betty Henton; auditor, Robert Jones.

Mr. Credell introduced Dr. R. W. Barrett, guest speaker, who spoke on "Fluoridation" and presented a movie "Drop In the Bucket". Featured chairmen for the month were Mrs. Eugene Brown, Dental Health, and Mrs. Robert Thomas, publicity.

Attendance prize was won by Miss Christina Longworth's class.
