

ON THE SCENE

HANK WOLLMAN

It's quite true that the recent rains really deluged the Southland, but they're not responsible for the shipwreck on the back lawn of the Polynesian restaurant in Waverly.

The shipwreck there is a decorative touch (manually imported) to add atmosphere and color to the new outdoor stage and South Sea island longhuts now under construction.

Therefore, commuters of the Great Wide Way of 101 should not notify naval authorities of an errant sailboat if they notice a mast peeping up from the back lawn of the Polynesian.

The new outdoor set-up should be completed in time for the gala Inau planned for May 4. Baseball fever has really struck the Southland! Archie's, the coffee shop-restaurant at 174th and Crenshaw, has a home-made scoreboard on hand to keep all informed of the latest diamond doings of the Dodgers. Thus you can get lunch and the league standings... of the boxscore with your 'burgers, if you prefer.

Fifi Baldwin, the talented and popular entertainer at the Vegas Club on Vermont, knows what it is to have life made difficult. It wasn't bad enough to have bartender Bob Martello go into his soft shoe dance routine every now and then, but now owner Tony Martello has taken up the xylophone... using for his keyboard only the best bonded blends.

NAMES IN THE NIGHT: Bobby McManus, the attractive ad manager of 'Tai Song's, who finally had a bouncing baby boy after keeping Manhattan Beach in suspense for weeks; Dwight Butler, the 'tender at Dick Master's busy Ball Hi, who is better known to his golfing buddies as "Ike"; Romero's, the handsome new Mexican restaurant at 174th and Crenshaw, where the tacos and enchiladas are a real taste treat; Johnny Girgrande, the new bartender at the Vegas Club, who is a fanatic Dodger rooster from the "old country";... Brooklyn; Scarpellino's, the spanking new Italian inn on Crenshaw, where last week's grand opening produced a parade of pizza patrons; Al Silver, the well-known automotive columnist, who recently enjoyed one of those private room suppers at the popular Kyoto restaurant on Western; Diane Lowe, the pretty dark-eyed waitress at the Normandie Cafe, Hermosa Beach's gift to Gardena.

Swimming School Opens Tomorrow in South Torrance

A swimming school which will instruct persons from the age of 1 to 100, will open tomorrow in South Torrance.

Owned by Al Roushdi, 36, a gymnast in the 1958 Olympics, the school will include a T-shaped pool, dressing rooms, a tropical patio and eventually will feature an athletic field.

The school will be located at 2344 Hawthorne Blvd., with lessons to be given from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. except on Sundays, when the pool will be open to recreational swimming from 1 to 4 p.m.

"I believe it is very important for children to learn to swim at a very early age," Roushdi said.

Scooter Rider Injured

John Gerald Sharkey, 18, of 5118 Sepulveda Blvd., was injured Thursday when his motor scooter collided with an auto at 23162 Hawthorne Blvd., police said.

The car was driven by Orson Oliver Messick, 60, who resides at the address, and who was turning into his driveway.

He emphasized that ability to swim, even before the child learns to walk, will prevent drowning because toddlers are curious, and apt to fall into a pool or other water.
