Name Attendants For Wedding

Wedding attendants have been chosen by Miss Jeannette Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Harris, 1607 Acacia ave., and Mark Edward Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Rogers of Redlands, for their marriage June 13 in St. Andrews Episcopal church. Rev. Hugh Percy will officiate.

Miss Harris' matron will be Audrey Ann Hartman of California. Bridesmaids will be Mary Lou Reed and Shirley Reed, Julie Rowan and Mrs. Jack Clarke.

Best man will be Bill Rogers of Redlands, brother the groom.

Ushers will be Todd Showalter, Al Brakensiek, Gary Weatherford and Fred Wright.

Guests at the reception will be recorded by Joy Ware. Others helping at the reception will be Coreene Rohr, gifts; Mrs. Minnie Henderson, punch; Mrs. Thomas Deere, cake; Ann Flourney, assisting at table.

Honored at Showers

Sorority sisters in Alpha Xi Omicron at Redlands University, the Misses Audrey Ann Hartman, Corrine Rohrbach, Joy Ware and Mrs. Janice Clark and Mrs. Marge Dietrich, were hostesses April 13 at a bridal shower for Miss Harris. Guests were 60 school friends.

The party was held at Anderson Hall at the university, where Miss Harris is a January graduate.

Cup cakes bearing the initials of the betrothed couple were served.

A yellow and white kitchen shower was given April 3 by Miss Julie Rhone at her home, 1019 Beach ave. Guests were former Torrance High School friends and their mothers.

The honoree's cake was yellow and white, and yellow and white daisies and daffodils decorated the rooms.

The kitchen gifts were chosen to complement the bride's yellow kitchen scheme.

Garden Club Tour

Los Colinas Garden Club members are planning a tour of the Chadwick Gardens, 1639 Ford ave., Redondo, for their Monday meeting.

The club is composed of nearly 30 members living in Palos Verdes, Riviera, and meet twice monthly to hear guest speakers and enjoy garden tours.

Musical Program At Sepulveda

Sepulveda PTA held its association meeting April 18 in the school cafeteria.

The Colors were presented by the Color Guard from Mrs. Emmett Milburn's Brownie troop.

"Were You There" and "In the Garden" were sung by the Sepulveda Mothersingers. A children's program was presented by Mrs. Paschall's kindergarten three pieces "Chimes," "Children's Polka," and "Echo." For an encore they repeated the children's polka.

Civilian Defense George Powell, guest speaker, gave a talk on civilian defense.

He explained that civilian defense is not an organization but was organized to prepare each neighborhood on the ways and means of helping themselves in case of disaster. He spoke of several points that each person should check to see if his home is prepared for an emergency. He also mentioned that civilian defense is working closely with the schools and in the event of any emergency that the children will be kept in an orderly unit and will be kept at school until the danger is over.

Mrs. Robert Whitney told the group about the 33rd district convention, which she had at-
