

CLARA DOUGHERTY, president-elect of Torrance Pilot Club, will be installed with other officers, at an installation dinner tonight.

Pilot Club Has Installation

At a dinner meeting tonight at a local restaurant, new officers of the Pilot Club of Torrance will be installed in a ceremony to be conducted by Miss Ruth Cunningham of San Gabriel Valley, Past District Governor and Chaplain of Pilot International. Invitations to the affair have been extended to various service clubs in the area and to special guests and friends of the Pilot Club members.

Fred W. Mill, division controller of National Supply Co., Torrance plant, is to be speaker of the evening, his topic "The History of Torrance."

Officers to be installed to serve for the coming year are president, Mrs. Clara Dougherty; first vice president, Miss Mae Sleep; second vice president, Mrs. John Whittington; recording secretary, Mrs. Mary Young; corresponding secretary, Mrs. James Krueger; treasurer, Mrs. C. B. Mitchell; two-year director, Mrs. Joseph K. Burchfield; one-year directors, Mrs. Gerald Cork and Miss Elizabeth Holland.

Donate Services

The Pilot Club of Torrance, one of more than 400 in Pilot International, have donated their time to various charitable organizations, in addition to their regular visits to their "adopted" ward at Harbor General Hospital. Service work during the past year has included the addressing, stuffing, and sorting for mailing of envelopes for the Easter Seal Campaign of the Crippled Children's Society; volunteer work in the offices of the Community Chest in San Pedro; individual member participation in various fund raising campaigns, and taking part in civic affairs of the city.

The theme of Pilot International this year has been "Dedicated to Friendship and Service," and the Torrance Club has taken every opportunity to attain this goal.

Kindergarten Round-up

Children who live in the Fern-Greenwood School attendance zone who will enter kindergarten next September may be registered for the fall semester May 12. Children must be 5 years old by Dec. 2, 1958, in order to enroll in kindergarten in September. Parents registering children for kindergarten must verify the date of birth by presenting a birth certificate or similar document.

The school doctor will be available to examine children and the kindergarten teachers will answer questions of parents regarding the kindergarten program.

Honorable mention was won in the International Affairs division, Mrs. Tom G. Halasey, local chairman. This was largely for the sending of nylons to Japan for the Japanese to use in making flowers and allied crafts.

Honorable mention was also given for the club press book which contained publicity articles from the Torrance Press and other local papers. Mrs. J. G. Louvier, president elect, was publicity chairman. Mrs. John Schwartz, club president, accepted all the awards for her club.

MRS. RONALD CALKINS

Lynda Davenport-Ronald Calkins Wed in First Methodist Church

An evening candlelit service at First Methodist Church last Thursday united Miss Lynda Lee Davenport and Ronald Benjamin Calkins. Rev. John Taylor officiated at the single ring ceremony.

Lynda Lee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Davenport, 907 Portola ave. and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Calkins, 120 Via Circola.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her maid of honor was her sister, Miss Karen Davenport and bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack Johnson and Miss Karen Hester.

Robert Calkins served his brother as best man and ushers were Charles Reece and Lloyd Finch.

The bride was gowned in full skirted nylon tulle with inserts of French alencon lace and the skirt falling into a short train.

Her matching lace mitts complemented the brief sleeves of the lace bodice which was encircled by a cummerbund of white satin.

A crown of crushed tulle caught the bride's fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white orchids. Mother of the bride wore an ensemble of grey linen with pink accents, and an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a navy blue chemise with matching accents. Her corsage was of orchids. The maid of honor wore white brocade taffeta with turquoise cummerbund and matching accents.

cents. Her bouquet was of turquoise daisies. The bridesmaids' gowns were styled as that of the maid of honor, except for their cummerbunds which were coral and lavender. Their bouquets were of matching colors. A reception was held at the church following the ceremony. Following a brief trip to Catalina Island, the couple will make their home in Torrance. Both are graduates of Torrance High School and are now attending El Camino College.

Junior Women Win Awards

Junior Women's Club members are jubilant this week over the winning of two first place awards, a second, a third and two honorable mentions, at the district convention last week end in Santa Barbara.

The first class winnings were in the handicraft division, Mrs. William Sturgis, chairman, and in the American home division, Mrs. Phillip L. Hoffman Jr., chairman. The club handicraft exhibit won second place in the Handicraft Fair last year. The American Home entry highlighted the Vogue sewing contest which the local club put on earlier this year. Trophies which the club may keep, were given for these awards.

The club entry in the Fine Art division, musical and drama, won second place. Mrs. Allen E. Hofferber is chairman of the local club music division and Mrs. Robert L. Kerber, the drama chairman. The local club puts on a play each year and has a fine sextette. They won first place in the state contest last year.

Third place honors were won in the Build a Better Community section. Mrs. Allen Hofferber, local chairman. The award in this case was won because of the club activity for a new Scout Center in Torrance.

Honorary mention was won in the International Affairs division, Mrs. Tom G. Halasey, local chairman. This was largely for the sending of nylons to Japan for the Japanese to use in making

AS REPORTED IN LIFE
 April 14, 1958

The chemise—or sack, or bag—has now been around for months but arguments over it, instead of calming down, keep flaring up. Last week chemises were publicly put to the torch. In editorial pages and over television, men continue to make furious attacks on the style. But it is a smash success with the women and merchants. It not all the men of the country. Stores report that the chemise accounts for 85 per cent of all moderately priced dress sales—that without it they would have been badly hit this season. Women were recently advised by a financial columnist to combat the recession by buying the chemise. The sellout is based less on patriotism than on that old springtime urge for something new. But whatever the reason, the chemise is showing up all over the U. S.

Most women have bought the chemise in its sackiest shape and wear it several inches too long. In the latest Paris collections many more flattering variations are available. And, worn properly, "The chemise, or sack, or bag" has now come from unexpected sources. Whatever your reactions here in Torrance, come down, let us show you what we have. Try them on. We have the largest selection of chemises, sackies, bags, in all South Bay.

Doll Club Tours Antiques Gallery

South Bay Doll Club members met last Thursday evening at the Kuskas Antiques Gallery, 24201 Walnut st., Lomita, with Mrs. J. B. Kuskas, hostess. Invited guests were members of the Doll Guild of California.

Mrs. Donna Allen, Redondo Beach, gave the program, "Symbolism of Japanese Dolls and Figurines."

Following the program guests toured the gallery and enjoyed seeing the many dolls displayed there. Of added interest were two fabrics recently acquired, a specimen of the Chinese Forbidden Stitch, and a brocade of the Elizabethan period. Donors were the Braums of Hollywood.

The hostess served refreshments.

Girl Scout Activities

Twenty girl of Scout Troop 566 and six adult chaperones spent Easter vacation at the San Moritz Club where they enjoyed snow games and ice skating.

Members of Girl Scout Troop 474 made tray favors for patients at Torrance Memorial Hospital. Following their recent presentation, the girls were taken on a tour of the hospital kitchen by the dietitian.

Little League Mothers Elect

The Women's Auxiliary of Torrance National Little League held a meeting Wednesday, April 16, at Greenwood School with 68 mothers present.

Many of the season's activities were planned, including the opening day parade, the coming dance.

The new officers for this season are as follows: Mrs. William Hartley, president; Mrs. Gordon Smith, vice-president; Mrs. Vern Coll, secretary; Mrs. Pete White, treasurer; Mrs. Pat Patrick, concession manager; Mrs. John Marshall, assistant manager; Mrs. Eddie Friberg, activities chairman; and Mrs. Karl Marquard, publicity.
