

Aquarium Group Meets Tonight

The April meeting of the Harbor Aquarium Society will be held tonight at 7:30 in the Recreation Hall at McMasters Park, 15th st. and Yukon in Torrance. The meeting will be held to order by incoming President Ronald Woods of Redondo.

Speaker of the evening will be George Barlow of Los Angeles, his topic being "How to Observe Fish."

Barlow is doing laboratory research work at UCLA and will receive his Ph. D. this summer. Later this year he will go to Germany to study fish under the renowned Dr. Lorenz. He recently won a prize on a lecture presented at a meeting of the American Society of Ichthyologists and Herpetologists. Barlow recently returned from one of his many trips to Mexico for specimens and brought back many interesting fish for further study.

Install Officers
New officers will be seated at tonight's meeting. They are: Ronald Woods, Redondo, president; Alvin McEwen, Harbor City, vice-president; Nancy Woods, Redondo, secretary; Evelyn Church, Gardena, treasurer. Committee members are: Elaine Johnson, tickets; Nancy Woods, membership; Wresley Cooke, program; Alvin McEwen, librarian; Bertha Hutchison, publicity; Charles Wade, Irene Harter, Evelyn Church, Bertha Hutchison, hobby show and display.

Plans are now under way for the fifth annual Aquarium Show to be held at the Torrance Civic Auditorium on May 16, and 18 in Torrance.

The showfish of the month will be Platies. The door prize

To Attend Convention
Torrance Woman's club members attending the Marina District convention at the Miramar Hotel, Santa Monica, April 29-30, will be Mrs. J. P. Bay, H. Stephens, Don Quinlan, J. Clifford, John Thuss, Don Wolf, R. E. Moffitt, Frank Fitts, L. A. McCoy, and Herman Mitchell.

Lutheran Meetings Are Announced

Ted Youngs, lay delegate to the California District Convention, and Rev. Karl Oelschlaeger of Park View Lutheran Church will return today from a convention at Holy Redeemer Lutheran Church in Bellflower. A report will be given to the congregation at both the 8:30 and 11 a. m. services Sunday.

Potluck Dinner
Another family potluck dinner is set for Friday, April 25. The hosts for this month's social and dinner is the Altar Guild and they are giving it in honor of the new members of the church, "April Showers" is the theme to be carried out in decorations. Each family attending is requested to bring one or two covered dishes and their own silverware and dishes. Milk, coffee, rolls and butter will be furnished. A door prize will be presented by the Altar Guild. All members, friends and relatives are invited to attend. The time has been set for 6 p. m.

Luther League
The Luther League meets this Sunday at 6:30 p. m. Bill Pergin will lead the devotions this Sunday and Ronnie and Dennis Wernli will be in charge of the games for the recreational period. All youths between the ages of 12 and 19 are invited to come and share in the fellowship.

The Luther League of Park View Lutheran Church attended the sunrise service in Hollywood Bowl this Easter. They contributed 21 dozen calla lilies towards the decorating.

Men of the church will have their Brotherhood meeting April 30. The program for the evening has not been completed, but it will be something of interest for all the men. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. by the Women's Auxillary.

OFFERING PERSONALITY training at their new studio, corner of Crenshaw and Torrance blvd., are Florence Blake and Doretta I. Johnson.

Personality School to Open Studio in Torrance May 1

Torrance is to have something they have never had before—a Studio of Personality Improvement. To open May 1st at the corner of Torrance and Crenshaw, the studio will be under the direction of Miss Florence Blake and Miss Doretta I. Johnson.

Personal improvement, effective speech and personality development are only a few of the highlights planned for the local area and its outlying territory. Well known as a lecturer, teacher, and consultant in the charm field, Miss Blake has planned many courses of interest to people in the thriving Torrance area. Among them will be a class in public speaking designed especially for men and women executives. Another, devoted to the advancement of office employees, will stress the importance of grooming, manners, attitudes, and habits.

Need mothers lose their glamour in the routine chores of family life? Miss Blake says, "No," and plans to prove her answer with a daytime course designed particularly for the home-maker. Teenagers will enthusiastically welcome the after school and Saturday courses planned for their special interests. Business and professional women will have evening classes.

As a recognized authority in her field, Miss Blake has guided training in the industrial and real fields, given courses in Public Speaking and Personality, for recognized educational institutions, spoken to Women's Clubs and Business and Professional organizations, and appeared on radio and television.

Author's Articles
She is the author of the "Put Your Best Foot Forward" column which has been running in the Torrance Press.

She has California State teachers' credentials, and at one time gave a course to teachers of the L.A. Board of Education, as an in-service training, with teachers getting credits for attending her classes.

Besides belonging to the Torrance Chamber, Miss Blake also belongs to the L.A. Soroptimist

Take Pictures at Sepulveda
Class pictures will be taken at Sepulveda school, Wednesday, April 30, according to Mrs. Dixie Mayer, PTA publicity chairman. Parents are asked to send money for the pictures, on Friday, May 2nd or Monday, May 5th.

Charles Bennen, one of the PTA fathers, is donating his time to photograph the children.

Baptists Will Hear Missionary

Dr. J. C. Brumfield, pastor of South Bay Baptist church, reminds his congregation of daylight savings time this Sunday. Services will be at the usual hours, Sunday school at 9:45, church service at 11 a. m. Baptist Youth fellowship meeting will be at 6:30 p. m. and the sermon of "Seven Decisions of Pilate," will be given by Dr. Brumfield at 7:30 p. m.

Trustees will meet in the pastor's study at 7:30 p. m. Monday. Wednesday there will be a planned pot luck dinner of the entire church fellowship. Guest speaker will be James Halbert, missionary returnee from French West Africa, under the Conservative Baptist foreign missionary society. Halbert will have curios on display and will present pictures taken on the mission field.

Ladies White Cross work day is Thursday, hours from 10 a. m. - 4 p. m. Meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Austin Thayer, 100 N. Prospect ave., Redondo. The ladies are asked to bring a sack lunch.

Choir rehearsal will be at 7:30 p. m. Thursday and Saturday will bring another work day on the Sunday school building now under construction.

tacted have expressed themselves as appreciative of the type of training to be offered in the new studio, and feel that it will be of advantage to Torrance. Miss Blake and Miss Johnson have extended a warm welcome to the public to drop in and see their attractive studio, located over a flower shop or to call them to say "Hello" at FA-8-0833.
