Isen Asks Opinions On Cat License Law

Mayor Albert Isen said that "my mind is open on the proposed cat licensing law," at Tuesday's meeting. He said that he had received a number of protests against the proposal to limit the number of adult cats in each family to two and charge a license fee for the felines.

Isen said that he wants to hear from people who favor the law; as well as those who oppose it, so that he can make his decision when the law is voted on May 21 following a public hearing.

Two Students Win Scholarships from Industry Club

Winners of the Scholarship Awards Essay contest sponsored by The National Supply Management Club were presented with certificates and checks May 1 by Henry Moreau, Scholarship Chairman at National. Each received $150 for winning efforts in the contest held April 9 for seniors at Torrance and North High Schools.

Anna E. Buichl from North High wrote on the subject "The Value of Liberal Arts Courses for Industrial and Scientific Careers." She is taking a college prep course in high school with emphasis on science and math, and plans on continuing her studies at UCLA, majoring in psychology. After college, Miss Buichl expects to get into social welfare work, assisting the physically handicapped. Richard W. Ryon is the winner from Torrance High. He follows the same course of study as Miss Buichl and chose the same subject for his winning essay. Ryon expects to continue his education at Santa Barbara or Riverside with a major in Education, and plans a career as a High School science teacher. Both contestants are excellent students, and have maintained consistently high scholastic averages.

Prompt Results Obtained Through Torrance Press

A two bedroom house and a new tenant had no trouble getting together after a classified ad appeared in the Torrance Press. Owner G. C. Capel of 2470 W. 255th st. Lomita, said that 15 people inquired after the ad appeared Thursday, and a new tenant rented it before the day was over. Quick action can be yours too if you call a courteous ad-taker at the Torrance Press if you have something to sell, rent or buy, by phoning FA 8-2345.
