Rev. Anger Will Speak on Riches

At the 7:30 Sunday evening service of the Torrance Religious Science Group, Rev. Ray Anger will speak at the YWCA, 2320 West Carson st., on "Discovering Life's Riches." The minister will explain how a person can use the powers of his subjective mind to bring into form any desire which his conscious mind can conceive. The key to unlocking the unlimited treasure that is buried in each human life is to be found in conscious mental choosing of right thoughts and concepts.

'Sports Knight' Held at School

The final upper division "Sports Knight" of this semester was held at Stephen M. White Jr. High, with the "Victory Dance" as their theme. Under the faculty leadership of Mrs. Margaret Bell, Stanley Miller, and Douglas Reed, the students enjoyed skating, games, and Glenda Terry, Andrea Perkins, Frankie Black, Florence McAlary, and Robert Alegria, offered student entertainment during the intermission, doing a pantomime to the hit tune "Lolly Pop."

Track stars, receiving cups for winning their events were, Danny Espolen, A9 high point man and co-captain, Mike Velasquez, high point All stars, Charles Huston, tie high point All stars, Gary Grable, who broke 100 yd. dash record, Larry Batsell 75 yd. dash, and Mike Irvine, A9 Captain who was voted by the students as the most popular guy. All the track teams were guests for the evening.

Parent Teacher Association parents attending were William Wager, Charles Irvin, Henry Runge, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cartwright, Mr. and Mrs. D. McCown, Mmes. James McMillen, A. Barken, Carl Johnston, E. N. Reese, C. E. Johnson, and Mrs. Oscar Smith, PTA President. The final lower division "Sports Knight" will be May 23.

are the contents of the second chest that when the contents are opened and used, a person's outer experiences will be automatically transformed for the better. This is what St. Paul means, when writing in the New Testament, he said, "Be ye transformed by the renewing of your minds." Mrs. Harriet Benedict will sing a solo, and after the service there will be a social time and coffee hour. At the Wednesday evening study class, at 1545 West 216th st., Rev. Ray Anger will speak on a section of the Science of Mind textbook written by Ernest Holmes. The section is called, "Limitless Power at Man's Disposal." There will be opportunities for questions and answers. The general public is invited. Freewill offerings are received at the meetings and classes.
