Lionettes Have Dinner-Dance

The South Torrance Lionettes held their first spring dinner dance at Pen & Quill Saturday evening, May 3. This will be an annual affair with the new group and was quite successful for a first social venture. A lovely cocktail party was held at the home of the Lionettes president, Mr. and Mrs. David Tanner, preceding the affair. Mrs. Bert Levy, vice president of the club and program chairman and Mrs. Jack Stephens, secretary of the club, were deservedly congratulated for their excellent work and preparations which added much to the success of the evening. Those who were unable to attend missed a very enjoyable time and an opportunity to become better acquainted. Three lucky South Torrance Lionettes attended the regional three-day convention at Santa Catalina Island (naturally, with their Lion husbands) May 16-18. The lucky ones are Mrs. David Tanner, Mrs. A. E. Perkins (Mr. Perkins is chairman of the convention committee for the South Torrance Lion group) and Mrs. Jack Stephens. A special "revue" will be shown Friday evening, a Governor's Ball Saturday evening and the final highlight of the convention is a chuck wagon breakfast Sunday morning. The three Lions members and their wives are looking forward to a wonderful time and hoping to establish some recognition for this brand new group among the representatives of the many other groups that will be in attendance.
