PUT YOUR BEST FOOT FORWARD

By FLORENCE MARY BLAKE
Lecturer, Teacher, Consultant

Those eyes of yours... are they as lovely as you would like them to be? They can be your greatest beauty, you know. If you bemoan the fact that you think they are too small, wide apart, close together, deep set, or any other not too flattering description, please stop thinking critically about your greatest gift and harken to the ways to improve eye beauty.

It is important that you stop disapproving and start improving right this very minute. Sight itself is such a great faculty that we should cherish and appreciate it and not waste time fretting about any minor beauty handicap. Think for a moment what life must be like for those with-out sign or with seriously impaired vision and our imagined lacks become very unimportant don't they?

One of the first steps to beautiful eyes regardless of size or shape is to train them to look for beauty, reflect kindness and radiate friendliness. When they can do these things your eyes have a towering advantage over those gorgeous "limpid pools," that reflect only self interest and a cold appraisal of others.

Remember too, youth blinks... age stares. If you want your eyes to look brighter, more sparkling, blink more often. Don't flutter your eyelids-but do make it a habit to blink regularly. When anyone stares it gives others the impression of disinterest or an unflattering curiosity. Neither is nice. When you read, be sure that you do so with the light coming over your left shoulder or with the material well illuminated. To keep eyes from becoming fatigued while reading look up frequently and look out the window or as far off as you can. This strengthens eye muscles.

Look right at people when you are introduced or when conversing with them. Your interest and attention are shown in your eyes and magnifies the power of your personality. We are all uneasy with people whose eyes seem to be constantly darting about almost as if seeking some escape from us. When you are talking with someone and all the time their eyes roam to your hat, dress, jewelry, or off to another corner of the room, you can not help but feel that they are bored or disapproving and this makes anyone tense and unsure. In reality they may be just shy. It is certain, however, that they are missing a great deal in not knowing the power of relaxed, pleasant, attractive eyes as a magnet which will draw and hold the interest of others.

Then, the women who would rather not see what is going on than wear glasses in public are a real puzzle to me. Why does any woman feel that her glasses are such a handicap to her looks that she pretends not to need them and keeps them hidden in her purse? Probably, it is because she has never found a pair that are truly becoming to her. Glasses can and should improve a girl or woman's appearance and give her an attractive individuality as nothing else can.

You can counteract laugh lines, furrows, and wrinkles by choosing frames with lines slanting upward. You can even modulate the shape of your face by the shape of the frame you choose. Remember this, lines that go in the same direction strengthen each other. For example: round frames on a round face make that face appear much more so. Irregular shaped harlequins will lengthen and ovalize it. Therefore when you do not want to emphasize a line of your face, select frames that have lines that go at an angle to the lines of your face not lines going the same way. There is a complimentary frame for every shape of face. Glasses really are a 'show-case' for your eyes if properly chosen.

With or without glasses, your eyes are "the windows of your soul." People catch your mood by the expression in your eyes more quickly than in any other way. Look in the mirror and think of a person you dislike... then think of a person you love dearly. Notice the difference? Well, that same difference is conveyed to others. And, I just can't help adding... ladies if he can see that stern look of disapproval, or that 'let's go home' look across a room, so can anyone else. Watch those knowing looks. Don't let your eyes give you away. Try to look at others with kindness, gentleness, and affection and watch how they respond to you.

Call Beginning Square Dancers

A "beginners round-up" square dance will be held Friday evening at Roosevelt school, 3533 W. Compton blvd., to acquaint new square dancers of the southwest and Bay sections of the County with activities of various square dance clubs.

To begin at 8 p.m., under the sponsorship of the Traveling Yardbirds square dance club of Lawndale, the dance has been specially planned for novice square dancers, according to Barney Finrock, club caller.

All student square dancers with 12 or more lessons, and all recent graduates, are especially invited and will find that the program has been tailored to their level," he stated.

A box lunch social will be combined with the square dance, all those attending to bring their own.

Live music by Ted Brown and the Briar Hopper Hoedowners is planned, and a number of guest callers, including several with beginners classes, are expected to attend and enliven the evening, according to Charles Barngrover, club president.

Kappa Deltas Will Install

South Bay Kappa Delta alumnae will hold installation of officers at 8 p.m. May 28 in the home of Mrs. Howard Rusted, 15 Cincinching rd., Rolling Hills.

Mrs. John McGee will install the following incoming officers: Miss Helen Erne, president; Mrs. Melvin Riechley, vice president; Mrs. Larry Burns, secretary; Mrs. George Ratkovic, treasurer; Mrs. Albin Johnson, press chairman; Mrs. Roland Strawn, magazine chairman; Mrs. Shelby Calhoun and Mrs. Lloyd Carr, Panhellenic representatives.

All Kappa Deltas in the area are invited to this final business meeting by calling FR 7-1397 and to the June dessert party.

Women Voters to Convention

Water resources development and state constitutional revision will highlight discussion at the 37th annual convention of the League of Women Voters of California May 27-29 at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles. Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco and Representative Clair Engle will speak.

Palos Verdes Estates representatives to attend are Mrs. Melzar Jones, president; delegates Mmes. Richard Blakeley, William Martin and Hugh Morehead, and alternates Mrs. Joseph Anusof, Harry Morgan and Nicholas Shishkoff. The Palos Verdes membership includes women from Torrance, South Bay cities and the Palos Verdes peninsula.

The league is a non-partisan organization established in 1920 to study and act on governmental issues. As more and more Torrance women become active in the local league, services will be available to the Torrance community itself.

To Receive Degree

Donald Roy Tompkins, son of Dr. D. R. Tompkins, 1417 Foot ave., will be in the graduating class at the University of Colorado, Boulder, June 6, when he will receive his Masters degree in Physics. He previously earned his B.S. ("M.E.") at the University of North Dakota. He will now work on his T.H.D. degree.

MRS. IDA HECHINGER, 17038 Faysmith, member of the California Fuchsia Society, was awarded a special plaque last weekend for her entry in the Hobby, Flower and Art Show in civic auditorium.
