

Mary Sippel Award Student

Miss Mary Sippel, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. Milton Sippel, 2914 Onrado, and a Torrance High School pupil, has received an outstanding student award in a program sponsored by the California Savings and Loan League and locally by the South-west and Marina Savings and Loan Association.

The award along with a bronze engraved plaque will be presented to Mary at an awards assembly at Torrance High School June 10.

Mary participated in an essay contest held May 24 in which the five winners share an additional $5000 in scholarships and the five schools represented will receive a permanent trophy bearing the winner's name.

Mary came to Torrance with her parents in September, 1954, from Lawrence, Kan. She is a life member of Scholarship Society, member of Senior Council, a four-year member of the Tartar band.

In 1957 she represented Torrance High School as exchange student of American Field Service, spending last summer in Finland.

She has been very active in church work, serving as president of the Harbor-Bay area of Christian Youth Fellowship. She sings in the youth choir of the First Christian Church.

Volunteers for Children Hold Porch Dedication Services

Volunteers for Children held a dedication ceremony recently for a new occupational therapy porch at Harbor General Hospital. The facility is designed for the use of children. It was dedicated by a charter member, Mrs. Donald Smith, in memory of Mrs. Geraldine Orzio, who is remembered for her unselfish devotion to this cause.

Volunteers for Children is an organization dedicated to making the hospital stay of little patients as happy as possible under the circumstances, giving them the little attentions all children need but especially sick children.

Invited special guests included L. A. West, M.D., medical director; D. toGreen, M.D., assistant medical director; Kenneth Zikes, M.D., chief of pediatric services; Mrs. Frances Scott, director of nursing; Kurt Sherry, M.D.; Milt Arnold, M.D.; Johnny Johnson, Mrs. Boris Woolley, Clyde Baumgardner, Torrance Kiwanis; Russell Miller, Gardena Kiwanis; Mrs. Betty Laurent; Mrs. Edna Cloyd; Mrs. Mildred Hunt and Mrs. Vi Phister.

Mrs. Walter West was in charge of arrangements for the dedication and was assisted by Mrs. Marguerite McAllister, hospital coordinator. Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Ralph Gahan and decorations by Mrs. Arthur Cowie.

Need Volunteers
Additional volunteers are always needed and a membership drive is currently being held. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Emma Geer, FR 4-0861; Mrs. John Chedette, FR 5-6272; Mrs. Floyd Atkins, TE 3-4378; or Mrs. Marguerite McAllister, hospital coordinator.

Name Winners in Hobby Show

The annual Torrance Hobby, Art and Flower Show held last week end at the Torrance Civic Auditorium had a record year in entries as well as attendance at the show.

The three-day event sponsored jointly by the Torrance Terrace Garden Club, the North Torrance Fuchsia Society and the Torrance Recreation Department, was backed by enthusiasm from the City of Torrance and surrounding communities, making this annual event one which grows larger and larger each year.

Among the record number of entries in the show, there were eight winners of sweepstake prizes.

In the hobby section of the show George Hickey of the Harbor General Hospital, won a cup and ribbon for his covered wagon entry, and in the children's section Ann Marie Zupparde of 1532 Post ave., won a cup and ribbon for her doll collection.

There were six sweepstakes awards given in the flower section. In the club entry the trophy went to the South Bay Orchid Society for their orchid corsage display. Robert Graham of the Hermosa Flower Shop, for his Oriental arrangement, in the florist entries. Mr. Elipper of the Eliper Gardens in Lomita, received a cup and ribbon for his horticulture display. The individual entry trophy went to Mrs. Gladys Benstead for her flower arrangement.

The cup for arrangements by children ages 3 to 8 went to Steven Stadler and ages 9 to 15 went to Claudia Fitzgerald.

Sunday Night Drawing
The large fuchsia plant was won by Mrs. Naomi Davis of Fern ave. The bottle brush plant was won by R. R. Bain of Lomita and the parakeet was won by David Harris, 1776 Marinette st. Judges in the hobby section were Beverly L. Linton, Carlene Champion, Ed Gainewell, Curt Wagner and Marjorie Lomsdale.

Judges in the flower section were Mrs. Wm. Graupe, Mrs. Wm. Shearer, Loren Paulschr and Kenny Yyeas.

Jaycettes Name Trustees
Meeting at the Palms May 20 for their annual election, Torrance Jaycettes voted to appoint a board of trustees in place of elected officers, to operate until a regular election to be held later in the year.

Those chosen were Mrs. Ed Karlow, president (Mrs. Karlow was charter president in '52); Mrs. Dick Florence, vice president; Mrs. John Mangan, secretary; Mrs. Leonard Radford, liaison officer. Mrs. Karlow succeeds Mrs. John Mangan as president.

A joint installation with officers of the Junior Chamber will be held June 28.

Albert Benardo, director, and Keith Ackman, corresponding secretary, both of Torrance, and Mrs. George Hansen, wife of Salvation Army Lieut. George L. Hansen, commanding officer of the Redondo area office; Mrs. Virginia M. Kurtz, president of the newly organized group; and Mrs. Robert S. Magness.

Pharmaceutical Auxiliary Elects Officers at Luncheon Meeting
The final meeting of the women's auxiliary to the South Bay Pharmaceutical Association was held last week at the home of Mrs. Fred Reese in Hermosa Beach.

Following a delightful luncheon served by Mrs. Reese and her co-hostesses, Mmes. Harold Drevo and James Kamada, the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Jack Dean.

The nomination committee again read the proposed slate of officers for the coming year, after which they were unanimously elected.

To be installed in September are Mmes. Peter Aspen, president; Donald Demarest, vice president; Ronald Holt, secretary; Harold Drevo, treasurer.

A letter was read from Mrs. E. P. Fleming, president elect of the woman's auxiliary to the California Pharmaceutical Association, asking Mrs. Reese to be her parliamentarian for the coming year. Mrs. Reese graciously accepted this honor.

Present Gift
A lovely silver soup tureen was presented to Mrs. Dean in appreciation for her efforts and guidance in making this a most successful club year.

Members attending this meeting were Mmes. Aspen, Charles Bogolea, Brauer, Sam Caramelli, Dean, Demarest, Drevo, Irving were Mmes. Aspen, Charles Douglas, Ingie, Roger Jackson, Kamada, Reese, Robert Sherrill and Lee Solomon.

Give Bridal Shower
Miss Billie Jean Melton, bride-elect of Richard Bolton, was honored at a bridal shower given recently by the Misses Carolyn Wood and Kathleen Wright.

The bride-elect's chosen colors of pink and white were used in the centerpiece of carnations, room decorations and the buffet.

Games were played and prizes went to Joann Augustine and Dody Lingren.

The guest list included the Misses Alex Ewing, Dody Lingren, Joan Augustine, Carolyn Wood, Kathy Wright, Alexandria Wright and Mmes. Kenny Purdy, James Wright, James G. Wright and Kenneth M. Purdy.

Los Fiestadores Has May Dance

Miniature May poles with pastel ribbon streamers ending in tiny nosegays at each place setting centered tables at the season's final dinner-dance for Los Fiestadores dance club, May 17, in the Virginia club. There were favors for each of the 72 guests; among the winners of special prizes were Lloyd Jones, Mrs. E. E. Clayton, and a funny prize to Mrs. Lloyd Jones, labeled to "the world's worst bridge player" (actually a fine player).

A delightful feature of the dinner was the flaming dessert carried in of a background of soft music in the darkened room.

Board Members Crowned
A surprise of the board was the crowns made by Tommy Wilkes for incoming officers, silver for the men and jeweled for the ladies.

Following the delicious dinner, NEW EXECUTIVE BOARD for Los Fiestadores Dance Club were installed at last dance of the season in the Virginia club. From left are the W. R. Pattersons, membership and publicity chairman; the R. G. Leechs, treasurers; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Post, vice presidents; Mr. and Mrs. Don Hitchcock, presidents; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bolen, secretaries.
