

Nancy Niet Weds Joe Alvarez in Saturday Wedding at Lomita

Ten bridesmaids, a matron of honor, best man, and 10 ushers served at the wedding Saturday of Miss Nancy Niet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nieto, 25410 Belle Porte, Harbor City, and Joe Alvarez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andres Alvarez, 2234 Del Amo Blvd., Torrance. Rev. John V. Hegarty officiated at the double ring service in St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita.

Nuptial music was by Pete N'Alui singing "Ave Maria," "On This Day," and "Oh Beautiful Mother."

The bride was gowned in an Alisedo Angelo creation of imported rose point lace and nylon tulle, the torso fitted bodice with Sabrina neckline outlined in sequins and pearls. The skirt had lace panels and flowing train of lace and her veil fell from a Cinderella type cap of pearls and rhinestones. Her prayer book bouquet was of orchids, stephanotis and white carnations.

Mrs. Jerry Martinez was matron of honor and Ray Martinez, best man.

Bridesmaids were Phyllis Alvarez, Ruth Munoz, Pat Milligan, Sylvia Nieto, Irene Perez, Irene Gosset, Lillie Del Rosa, Elsie Madrid, Christine Madrid and Mary Martinez.

They wore matching French figure type gowns with scalloped neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and tiers of lace ruffles in the back.

Little Sandra Leyba was flower girl.

Ushers were Manuel Mendoza, Tony Gosset, Chuckie Nieto, Ramon Ponce Delon, Joe Rios, Richard Camou, Raymond Alvarez, Gongalo Percira, Tony Nieto and Julian Nieto.

A reception was held in the Retail Clerks Union Hall in Harbor City. Mrs. Clara Leyba was in charge of the guest book. An out-of-town guest was Mrs. Pat Barr of Denver.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and the groom was graduated from Torrance High School. He is employed at Harvey Machines. The newlyweds took a wedding trip to Catalina.

Chorus Concert Stated by College

Forty members of the a cappella choir of El Camino College will return from the first tour in the choir's history and will participate in the presentation of the annual Choral Concert in the college Campus Theater Sunday evening.

For the 8 p.m. performance, which will be free of charge, the choir will be swelled to 50 voices, according to its director, R. Neil Hill.

The 20-voice madrigal singers will also perform on the Sunday evening program, Hill stated.

Hill describes the concert program as a "tribute concert," in which honor will be paid to the Creator, to the patriarchs, the country and its heroes and to the college. The tribute to the Creator will mark the first presentation of an original com-

Juniors Win in State Competition

The Torrance Junior Woman's Club members came away from their state convention at Hotel del Corando, Corando, last weekend as victors in state competition.

For their work toward a civic Scout Center and other civic projects, they won first place in the Americanism section. Mrs. Edwin Hatter is chairman for the local club.

Mrs. Allen E. Hofferber, local music chairman, accepted third place award for her club in the music section.

For excellency of their music sextette, they won second place. In the local group are Mrs. Earl Peterson, Richard T. Brundin, James Van Dyck, George W. Post, C. L. Briner and Allen E. Hofferber.

A social hour followed and refreshments were furnished by Mrs. H. W. Nadeau and Mrs. Joseph Almar and their committee.

Arlington PTA Hears Reports

Arlington Elementary held its last association meeting of the year in the cafeteria May 15. Mother-singers of Sepulveda and Meadow Park Schools sang the inspirational message.

All final reports were made by chairmen of committees. The historian's report by Mrs. Lloyd Van de Vort, told of the many activities this year and the progress made. President-elect, Mrs. Francis Stutler, reported on the four-day state convention in San Francisco.

New officers were installed by Mrs. Evelyn Carr. Installation was followed by an exchange of presidents' pins. Mrs. Jack Prince received her from President-Elect Stutler, who accepted her from retiring President Prince.

A social hour followed and refreshments were furnished by Mrs. H. W. Nadeau and Mrs. Joseph Almar and their committee.

Family Has Five Living Generations

When Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marsh of Redondo entertained at a family dinner party Mother's Day for her mother, Mrs. R. W. Bowes of Torrance, there were three four generation families there. There are three five generation groups in the family.

Mrs. R. W. Bowes mother, Mrs. Emma Sewell, is the first generation mother from which these branch. She lives in New Born, N. C., and was unable to attend because of ill health.

Fourth generation in this branch is Don Hawk of Inglewood, son of Mrs. Robert Marsh, and fifth, his son Donnie.

Carl Steele Gives Clever Skit

A skit, "Nelle Hawkins, This Is Your Life," concluded the final meeting of Carl Steele PTA. R. K. Petrat narrated as board members passed before the outgoing president, Mrs. Albert Hawkins. Each portrayed a highlight of her office.

Mr. Zavislan, directing the talented North High Chorus and Glee Club, sang several selections, ending with the inspiring "Interlocken Camp."

The swing band, Jerry Andrews directing, played "Miami Beach Rumba," and "Everybody Loves Saturday Night."

Mrs. Thomas Greene was installed as new president by Mrs. D. D. Tuggle, past president of Torrance Council. Other officers are Mmes. Leo Fischer, Howard Thompson, Clifford Lane and James Woodruff, vice presidents; Mrs. Loren Scheele, secretary; Mrs. Donald Coleman, treasurer; Mrs. Warren Steele, historian; and Mrs. Albert Hawkins, parliamentarian. Neil Campbell, unable to attend the ceremonies, will serve as auditor.

DOTTIE'S NEW GRILL OPENS

A full coin's worth in service and home cooking will bring expansion in business. This fact is seen in the opening of Dottie's New Grill, 1542 W. Carson, Torrance. Located in the Carson Plaza, the restaurant celebrates seven years in this area for Dottie Hill.

Dottie remembers her first day, when she grossed $28 for 14 hours work. She pledged herself to cook all food on her own premises, to specialize in pie and cake, and to serve a good cup of coffee.

It paid off. Dottie's New Grill, with its coral booths and brand new equipment, stands by its slogan, "Meals you'd be proud to serve yourself."

Surprised new customers say, "New York steaks just $1.50?"

Old customers say, "Sure, and lunches 75 to 95 cents."

Dottie says simply, "I love people, I love to cook. It's a fine combination that's made friends and brought success. I want to thank everyone who made it possible." (advertisement)
