Roy Regener Flies to Japan

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Regener of Harbor City accompanied by their son, Pfc. Roy Mayfield, of Harbor City motored to Richmond and the Bay Area the week end of May 16.

In Richmond they visited with Regener's brother and family and took Roy on a tour of Fishermen's Wharf where both families enjoyed a luscious seafood dinner. They then visited Cliff House and the museum.

Roy reported to the Oakland Army terminal on Sunday after his folks left for home. He will be stationed there before being shipped to Ikego, Japan.

Roy is well known in the Harbor area and attended school in Lomita and Harbor City. He is on a six-year enlistment with the Army Special Weapons

Lioness Club Honors President

Torrance Lioness Club president's dinner was held May 20 at the Pen and Quill with a beautiful buffet in honor of President Mrs. Fred Boren.

Gathered around four tables centered with ceramic flower pots filled with pastel artificial flowers made by Girl Scout Troop 2077 in honor of their sponsors, were 24 club members. A hankie shower was given their president, three or four accompanied by original poems.

Outgoing officers and Mrs. Abe Robinson, immediate past president, seated at the head table, were Mrs. Fred Boren, president; Mrs. Milton Isbell, first vice president; Mrs. John Ritchie, second vice president; Mrs. A. K. Peterson, secretary; Mrs. Pete Radisich, treasurer; Mrs. William King, hair puller; Mrs. Frank Dominguez, bulletin editor.

The past president was presented with the Lioness scrapbook for 1957-58 by Mrs. Warren Hamilton.

In the charades presented by Mrs. Newell Larsen, Mrs. Sam Van Wagner, Mrs. Frank Pajac and Mrs. Fred Boren, Mrs. Pajac was winner with her portrayal of the song "Lollipop."

A June 14 joint installation service with the Lions Club men will be held at the Jumping Jack restaurant.

He telephoned his people to say "goodbye" and report that he was flying to Japan via Hawaii.

Scouts Go On Camping Trip

Girl Scouts of troop 1435 left on a recent Saturday morning for a weekend of camping at the picturesque Camp Adventure in the foothills of Glendora.

Following their arrival and unpacking of gear, the Hobo Patrol prepared breakfast. Earlene Doage said grace. The afternoon was spent in playing games and hiking expeditions. Pixie Patrol served the dinner and Carrol Binkley said the grace.

After a short hike the girls chose a spot to spend the night. A campfire ceremony and singing around the glowing fire were enjoyed before bedtime.

Rising with the sun the next morning, the girls went on a short hike before breakfast prepared by the Travelers Patrol. Breakfast was followed by a Sunday service of scripture reading and singing of sacred songs.

Another hike was taken in the afternoon with work on the Scout tree badge, the girls taking pictures and gathering leaves from 15 different trees.

Lunch was provided before camp broke, by the Explorers Patrol with Donna Simon saying grace. The group reached home about 3 p.m. Sunday.

Parents and guests accompanying the Scouts were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Broderson and daughter Sheryl, Mrs. Korison and son Mike, Mrs. Simon, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wass and two small sons, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hardcastle and son Doug, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Doage.

The troop is sponsored by the Walteria PTA.

Auxiliary Installs New Officers

Mrs. Don Cortum, Redondo Beach, was installed as president of the auxiliary to the Bay Harbor Osteopathic Society in an impressive ceremony at the Palos Verdes Country Club, the evening of May 6.

Mrs. Cortum accepted the gavel from Mrs. Edwin M. Riedell, Whittier, who will become president of the auxiliary to the California Osteopathic Association during the forthcoming convention of this state body, in Sacramento, May 18. Mrs. Riedell commended the Bay Harbor group on the contributions made in matters of public health during its first three years of organization.

Other Officers
Also taking office were Mmes. Robert Patterson, Rolling Hills, president-elect; G. F. Queros, Redondo Beach, first vice president; Dr. Joanne Boyce, Redondo Beach, recording secretary; Dean Brown, Gardena, corresponding secretary; and William Kimpel, Torrance, treasurer.

Mrs. Cortum has served as treasurer of the auxiliary for the past two years. A native Californian she spent her earlier life in Compton, where she attended school. While her husband was getting his B.A. degree from the University of Southern California and serving as student doctor at the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, Mrs. Cortum worked for Bank of America. In free time she worked on her major in education at the Compton and Pasadena junior colleges.

She is an active member of the St. Lawrence Martyrs Guild in Redondo Beach, where she and her family have lived for four years.

Home Interests
The new president's interests are homemaking and her four children, Michelle, 6; Gregory, 3; and Christopher, 1. When time permits, she enjoys the luxury of reading and attending the ballet.

At present the Cortum family is enthused over the architectural plans for the new wing to be added to their home.

Mrs. Cortum's interests in health and community welfare parallel those of her husband. Dr. Cortum became president of the Bay Harbor Osteopathic So-

Brownies Visit Bird Farm

Brownies of Troop 1360, recently formed, took their first trip recently to the Palos Verdes Bird Farm where they were fascinated by the talking parrots, fish, and the little chimpanzee.
