Prudential Agents to Attend Confab

Twenty-seven representatives from the Harbor and South Bay district agencies of Prudential Insurance Co. will attend the Western Leaders Business Conference this week at Sun Valley, Id., it was announced by Managers Delbert K. Schless and Harvey L. Harms.

Included in the delegation is Agent John H. Paules, who will be vice president of the conference.

Idaho Gov. Robert E. Smylie and Ed Day, vice president in charge of western operations for Prudential, will be the main speakers.

The Torrance representatives will meet with 250 of the company's leading life underwriters from Southern California. They were picked for the conference on the basis of outstanding insurance sales and policyholder service accomplishments during 1957.

NEW OFFICE—This is the new office of the Spinner Real Estate Co., at 15401 S. Western ave., Gardena, which opened recently. The firm formerly had offices in Hawthorne and Gardena, and offers practical advice, backed up by long experience, to buyers and sellers.
