

Gets Engineer Degree

Aaron B. Jacobs, son of Mrs. Pearl H. Jacobs, 22004 Mariposa, was among approximately 750 students receiving degrees at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute's 152nd commencement today.

Jacobs received the degree of bachelor of civil engineering.

Four Elected to Yell Leader Posts at El Camino College

Brent Moser, Richard Smothers, Larry Peck and Bart Rowland will serve as yell leaders at El Camino College for the 1958-59 season.

The men were selected recently by a committee of students and faculty members. Moser lives in Inglewood and is a math major at ECC. He is a member of the Phi Sigma Upsilon fraternity and his future plans are to continue in college and take flight training to become a pilot. He is a graduate of Washington High School and is 18 years old.

Currently enrolled at Fullerton JC is Smothers of Redondo Beach. His previous experience was at Redondo High School, where he served as a yell leader in his junior year. He is 19 years old and is also a math major. His future plans center around a BA degree, and he plans to enter the teaching profession.

Peck is a graduate of Gardena High School and is a political science major. A member of the Phi Sigma Upsilon and 20 years of age, he has had one year of experience, being a yell leader at Mt. Pleasant High School. His future plans are uncertain, although he wants to graduate from El Camino and go to Long Beach State. Peck lives in Hermosa Beach.

The fourth member of the group, Rowland, lives at 5601 Rockview dr., Torrance. A graduate of Torrance High School and a member of the Rho Delta Delta fraternity, he lists secondary education as his major. His future plans are to finish his education at Long Beach State and become a high school or junior college instructor. He is now employed as a recreation leader in the Torrance Recreation Department.

Christian School Classes End Term

The Harbor City Christian School ends its school term June 13. The three kindergarten classes graduated in cap and gown June 11 in the Retail Clerks' Union Hall, on 260th and Belle Porte, Harbor City.

Eighth grade graduation is tonight in the Harbor City Four square Church. It begins at 7:30 and everyone is welcome. There are 10 boys and four girls graduating. As there are only two seniors this year, they have voted against a public graduation service and will receive their diplomas in the final chapel.

The two are Lorna Dee Brooks and Jay Darrel Tyler. Summer school (six weeks of makeup work) will be held July 7-Aug. 15 this year. Day camp begins June 16 and runs until the Friday before school in the fall.

VOLLEYBALL EVENTS

Adult volleyball programs will be presented at Lomita Park on Mondays from 7 to 10 p.m. during the summer. The housewives league plays every Wednesday from 10 a.m. to noon.

Donald Roy Tompkins of Torrance was one of 1650 University of Colorado seniors who were awarded diplomas Friday.

Harbor City Men Win Top Posts at Harbor College

Harbor City residents took the top two student offices in this week's election at Harbor Junior College, J. Rayburn Hatfield, dean of student activities, said.

Elected after two-day, college-wide balloting are Don Derouin of 1643 254th st., Harbor City, president of the Associated Student Organization; Ralph Gullion, of 1403 W. 246th st., Harbor City, ASO vice president; Carol Moon of 1248 Papeete st., Wilmington, president of the Associated Women Students, and Richard Parsons, of 1103 Ronan ave., Wilmington, president of the Associated Men Students.

James Sistrunk of 737 W. 158th st., Gardena, was elected president of the Beta class; Gary McPeak of 1507 W. 256th st., Harbor City, president of the Gamma class, and Shirley Saunders of 1331 W. 109th st., Los Angeles, president of the Delta class. Alpha, or freshman, class president will be elected next September by the members of the incoming class.

Herman Cobrea, Dick Moon, Henry Perez, Carole Dennis, Terry Feratis, and Gloria Aldridge were runners-up in the lively balloting, which featured a new type of ballot with identification photos of all candidates, used for the first time this semester.

Methodists Host Graduation Breakfast

The annual graduation breakfast was held in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church of Torrance Sunday morning.

The breakfast was served to Methodist students graduating from eight grade, high school, junior college and college. Marvin Hiebert, youth division superintendent, gave the formal welcome to the group and Mrs. Harlan McCool, president of the Women's Society of Christian Service, served as hostess. The ministers, Rev. John L. Taylor and Rev. Donald J. Shelby, participated in the program.
