Civil War Exhibit to Be Featured by Southwest Savings Association

A special invitation is extended to visit both Southwest Savings' offices from July 1 to 10. Through courtesy of the Southern California branch of Civil War Round Table, a priceless collection of original and authentic Civil War objects will be housed in both lobbies—in Inglewood at 2700 West Manchester and in Torrance at 1603 Cravens. This exhibit, a prelude to the celebration of the Civil War Centennial, will include many valuable items owned by members of the Round Table.

On display will be such articles as draft notices, ammeties, one of the last of Lincoln's "pass" items written the day before his assassination, important Lincoln, Grant and Lee documents, an order of Jefferson Davis suspending writ of habeas corpus in the South, Civil War guns, swords, Garrison's famous Liberator newspaper, plus the National Intelligencer of 1862, describing Farragut's attack on Mobile, Union and Confederate model soldiers painted by the remarkably talented paraplegic Albert Thompson, cartridge boxes, shell fragments, Minie balls, side arms, Confederate currency and bonds, oaths of allegiance, broadsides, letters of Lincoln, Lee, Grant, Sherman and of the cabinet members of the Union and Confederacy, and more.

Purpose of Civil War Round Table, of which there are 60 chapters in the United States, is to meet, discuss and study each phase of that vital era in history. To preserve and perpetuate the period of the mid-19th century, 70 dedicated Round Table members gather once each month in what has proved to be a successful effort to clarify various Civil War problems. Men from every walk of life—writers, doctors, musicians, retired army officers, congressmen—are actively engaged in Round Table research.
