

Marina Savings Plans Open House, Numerous Prizes

Marina Federal Savings is finalizing plans this week for its open house celebration to be held Monday, June 30th, according to Russell C. Chase, president. The event will take place from morning to night at the association's new offices at 8750 S. Sepulveda. On hand for the occasion will be Milton Charles, well-known theater organist, who will play in the Marina lobby. A clown known as Filpo will entertain the children who come by and refreshments will be served. Chase said the feature of the day will be prizes, including a pleasure boat with motor and

PTA Reviews Accomplishments

"Achievement through accomplishment" was the theme of the last meeting of the Halldale Avenue PTA held June 10 in the school auditorium.

The history of the past year's accomplishments was presented by Mrs. Jack Kenyon. The record book dedicated to Mrs. Frank Bowling Jr. was presented by Mrs. William Dunston. Fifth graders under the direction of Ruth Adams, music teacher, sang a medley of songs featuring "The Girls of the Golden West."

Officers for 1958-59 were installed by Mrs. Harry Foot Jr., president-elect of Lomita-San Pedro Council. Theme was a trip to Hawaii and back. Each new officer was presented a lei of a color signifying her position.

Installed were Mrs. Frank Bowling Jr., president; Mrs. Judson Bowers, vice president; Mrs. B. M. Kellam, second vice president; Mrs. Irvin Bishop, third vice president; Mrs. William Brock, secretary; Mrs. W. L. Wilson, correspondence secretary; Mrs. Herbert C. Clark, historian; Mrs. W. H. McGuire, auditor; and Mrs. Richard Sabey, parliamentarian.
