

Sue Epperheimer Is Tuesday Bride of Victor M. Martinov

Miss Sue Epperheimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Epperheimer, 26428 Athena in Harbor City, was married at 6 p.m. Tuesday to Victor M. Martinov, son of M. C. Martinov, 3000 Palso Verdes dr., Rolling Hills. The double ring service was performed by Rev. Kenneth Knox in Waiters' Chapel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length gown of white nylon lace over taffeta with fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and mandarin collar. Her short veil fell from a lace and pearl tiara. Her fan shaped bouquet was centered with a large white orchid surrounded by little white baby orchids.

Mrs. Irma Imes was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a pale aqua gown of embroidered nylon over satin with satin cummerbund and matching headpiece. She carried a cascade of white and aqua carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by Phil Ward and ushers were Norman Martinev and Adrian Martinov.

The bride's mother wore teal blue crepe with white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents after which the couple left for a week's stay at Carmel. New home will be in Torrance.

Both bride and bridegroom are graduates of Narbonne High School and both are employed in Torrance.

MRS. VICTOR M. MARTINOV
Tuesday Bride

—Stanford Photo

MRS. SAMUEL DAVID PEDACE
nee Darlene Derouin

—Stanford Photo

MRS. DENNIS STANGELAND
Miss Torrance Weds

—Stanford Photo

Local Lad in Camera Pose

A portrait of 9-year-old Frederick J. Walker, son of Mrs. F. A. Walker, 1645 W. 228th st., hangs in the Palos Verdes Art Gallery and in the art gallery at the San Diego County Fair.

Titled "Tall Tales," the portrait was taken by Florence M. Harrison of Redondo, pictorial photographer who has placed first as woman's exhibitor in the U. S. and second place among world exhibitors. She is a member of the Southern California Council of Camera Clubs.

The picture of the boy and his dog has hung in the following international traveling salons: Orange Show in L. A., Palos Verdes, Teaneck and Newark, New Jersey, and Milwaukee, Wis.

Replacement
"Tall Tales" is a replacement

In Palos Verdes of another portrait, "Bubbling Out All Over" which Mrs. Harrison took of her favorite subjects. It shows the dog keenly interested in the bubble blowing of his master. This picture was one of the top 50 chosen in heavy competition by the California Council of Camera Clubs.

Singer-Dancer
Frederick is a talented singer and dancer as well as being an extremely photogenic young man. He performs at many local benefits.

The family lovingly call their almost 3-year-old English Dalmatian the "personality pup" and admit he is spoiled. He does many tricks, answers the phone, picks up cans of dog food, plays ball and retrieves.

"TALL TALES" is portrait of Frederick J. Walker and his English Dalmatian.

Los Fiestadories Give Dinner

Outgoing board members of Los Fiestadories dance club hosted the new board Sunday evening at a charcoal broiled steak dinner. The party was held in the lovely gardens of the H. C. Barringtons, 1541 Post ave., parents of J. A. Barrington, one of the evening's hosts.

Guests were seated at a long table covered with brown cloth centered with a low bowl of yellow and white daisies on a mat of yellow. Adding to the picturesque scene was the garden pool surrounded by Gerber daisies.

Following the dinner old and new board members exchanged ideas and club materials were turned over to the new board.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don H. Hitchcock, new presidents; Messrs. and Mmes. George Post, R. D. Bolen, Robert Leech and W. R. Patterson.

Entertaining were Dr. and Mrs. Allen Pyeatt, Messrs. and Mmes. J. A. Barrington, J. A. Eisenbrandt, John Schwartz, and Parke Mohtague.

Women Realtors Have Meeting

The Women's Division Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors held their regular monthly meeting at the board office June 6. Geneva Meara, president, presided.

Refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Mildred Patterson, Kathryn Sweet, Maribel Connert and Mary Toombs.

Mildred Patterson gave an interesting talk on "Selling Open Houses."

A further discussion of the by-laws, which was continued from previous meetings, was led by Mary Toombs.

The program was arranged by Maribel Connert, chairman.

The next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. July 11 at the board office.

Darlene Yvonne Derouin Becomes Mrs. Samuel David Pedace

A 10 o'clock nuptial mass in St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church of Lomita Saturday morning united Miss Darlene Yvonne Derouin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Derouin, 1643 W. 245 st., Harbor City, and Samuel David Pedace of Compton, Rev. John V. Hegarty officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of flowers, Connie Smith sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus" and "On This Day," accompanied by Mary Butterfield, organist.

The bride walked up the white carpeted aisle with her father. Her chiffon taffeta gown had lace empire top, a delicate etching of pearls outlining the pattern of the lace. It had Bateau neckline and short sleeves. The skirt was fitted, in front and the back bustle was trimmed with self taffeta roses. Her veil fell from a Queen Anne crown edged with pearls. Her bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Loretta Pedace was maid of honor. She was gowned in pink chiffon taffeta with lace empire top, cap sleeves and scoop neckline. Her skirt was Princess styled. She wore her hair in a braid crown interwoven with pearls, from which fell a circular veil of English empire illusion. Shoes were pink and gloves white and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Bridesmaids Myrna Flamingo, Pat Greer, Gayle Boucher, were similarly styled gowns in blue, their shoes in blue and their nosegays in blue carnations.

Catherine Derouin, junior bridesmaid, wore lace over blue taffeta and carried blue carnations.

Don Derouin was best man and ushers were Marcel Derouin, Lou Verrachia, and Ted Krawczyk.

The bride's mother wore light organza with applique flowers and Dior blue nylon straw hat. The groom's mother wore pink lace over taffeta and white accessories.

A reception for 350 guests was held in the Redondo KC Hall. Guest book was in charge of Jean Knuutila and the cake was cut by Mrs. Hazel Ward.

The couple will have a month's wedding trip, touring the east, and will make stops at Yellowstone Park, Niagara Falls, New York City, Washington, D. C., and Florida. They will visit with relatives of the bride in Minnesota and North Dakota and with relatives of the groom in Pennsylvania and Ohio.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High and Harbor Junior College. The groom attended Compton Junior College and Long Beach State College.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Rosalire Bouches and family of Crookston, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. Michael.

The new Mrs. Pedace wore a beige sheath embellished with lace pattern and matching accessories for her going away costume.

Sandra Lea Constance Weds Saturday in Inglewood Church

In a candlelight ceremony before the floral decorated altar of Inglewood Presbyterian Church Saturday evening, Miss Sandra Lea Constance, daughter of LeRoy Constance, 17202 Glenburn ave., was united in marriage with Dennis Stangeland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stangeland, 3805 W. 173rd st. Rev. John Stewart officiated at the 8 o'clock double ring service.

The bride was gowned in empire styled peau de soie sheath, the snug bodice and three-quarter sleeves in Alencon lace. The scoop neckline featured delicate embroidery of iridescent sequins and seed pearls. A full court train fell from bows at the beltline in back. She carried a white Bible covered with lace and white orchids, lilies and stephanotis.

Mrs. Dorothy Caspe, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Barbara Stangeland, Mrs. Betty Stanridge and Miss Frances Frisina.

Robert Stangeland served his brother as best man and ushers were Ralph Stanridge, David Constance and Dan Beattie.

The bride's aunt, Miss Sue

Myer, wore rose lace with pink accessories and the groom's mother wore pale blue lace with blue accessories.

A reception was held in the church hall after which the newlyweds left for a two-week honeymoon in San Francisco. The new residence will be in Inglewood.

The bride, who has been Miss Torrance and Miss California, is a graduate of Torrance High School and studied drama in Hollywood. She is employed at Hughes productions in Hollywood.

The groom is a graduate of Gardena High, L. A. City College and Pepperdine. He is employed in the L. A. County Fire Department. He plans to further his education at USC this fall.

Class Reunion Saturday Night

Class reunion for members of Narbonne High summer class of '48 will be held Saturday night with cocktails at 7 and prime rib dinner at 8 p.m.

The program will include a message from former Narbonne principal Lyon, to be read by Andy Spaan, master of ceremonies; class gossip by Vincent Lovell and Bobbi Tricas; special prizes awarded by Juanita Cooke.

The memory book contains more than 25 pages full of activities of class members during the past 10 years.

Jack Ewart and His Five Notes will play for the dancing, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Players Sign with Equity

Talented Southland amateurs interested in acting will soon have the opportunity to work with professional actors and directors in this area's first professional theater, the Hermosa Beach Playhouse on the Pier.

A contract was negotiated Monday between Charles Gray, managing director of the playhouse, and the West Coast Branch Actors' Equity. Gray believes this contract to be the first step in a long range plan to bring to the area, a first rate all year round professional theater which will draw audiences and talent from the entire L. A. area.

Opening tonight at the playhouse is Christopher Fry's comedy, "The Lady's Not for Burning," first production locally under Actors' Equity. In future productions Gray will be able to enlist services of top rank professionals from all entertainment fields.

Gray is a former director of Torrance Accent Theater.

Information on the current production may be had by calling the playhouse, FR 4-4400.

Celebrate Birthday

Mrs. Louis C. Carrizosa, 18445 Amy ave., was honored Saturday on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. Her husband, children and their families entertained her at dinner at Clifton's Cafe on Olive st., in L. A.

Present for the happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arriola and daughter Laura Jean, Miss Mary Lou Carrizosa and Mr. and Mrs. William Olvera and four children.

Aquarium Society Meets Tonight

Guest speaker at tonight's 7:30 meeting of the Harbor Aquarium Society at McMaster's Hall, will be Ken Norris, curator at Marineland. Slides will illustrate his talk on marine fish.

The society members plan a visit to Marineland soon.

The "little fish with the big name," leibistes reticulatus (guppy) has been chosen for the monthly show. The door prize will be a five-gallon tank and hood. Refreshments will be served.

YW Offers Summer Program for Girls

Girls of the area who are 12 years old and up, will have the opportunity to enjoy "camp away from camp" at the Torrance branch YWCA during their summer program which runs July 14-25. Crafts, sports, music, cooking, and knitting are included in the program. Hours will be from 1-4 p.m., Mondays through Fridays. For the convenience of working families, the girls may remain at the YW under supervision until 5:30 p.m.

Registrations are now being accepted at the YW, 2320 Carson st., or by phone FA 8-5914.

Penthouse Dance Club Organized

Opening dance of the Penthouse Club, South Bay area's new social dance club, proved quite a success according to Don Downs of Torrance.

The club, which is for young unmarried adults 21-35, meets each Sunday night at the Plush Horse for dancing from 8 to 12. Charter memberships are open and guests are welcome.

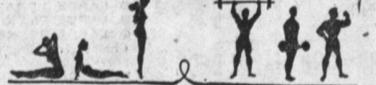

This week features dance exhibitions by Arthur Murray's and a trip to Catalina. Information may be had by calling Joy Gooding or Pat Gray at DA 5-0999.

Birthday Party

Ninth birthday anniversary of Frederick J. Walker, 244 and Eichelman, Lomita, has planned a card party to be held at 8 p.m. tonight in the parish hall. Usual prizes will be offered, prizes given and refreshments served. Hostesses for the evening will be St. Francis Guild, Mrs. Martha Stoll, prefect.

Plan Card Party

Altar Society of St. Margaret Mary Catholic church, 244 and Eichelman, Lomita, has planned a card party to be held at 8 p.m. tonight in the parish hall. Usual prizes will be offered, prizes given and refreshments served. Hostesses for the evening will be St. Francis Guild, Mrs. Martha Stoll, prefect.

CAL GYM
1321 1/2 Sartori - FA 8-0350 - Torrance

SLATE RUMBA CONTEST

A rumba contest will be featured at the American Legion dance Saturday night at the Legion Club House, Norma Martin will be the official hostess, according to Mel Coates, vice commander.

HOME DECORATOR SERVICE

BeautiPleat
DRAPERIES

Let our Home Service Representative bring fabric samples to your home—for you to judge patterns and colors. He will take measurements, if you wish, and give you estimates on custom work, no obligations. Just phone FA. 8-3303 for appointment. We own and operate our own workroom for custom draperies, cornices, valances, bedspreads, etc. Authorized BeautiPleat dealer.

We invite you to see largest selection of curtains & bedspreads in Los Angeles area

BAER'S Draperies and Curtains

Across from the Courthouse
1512 CRAVENS, DOWNTOWN TORRANCE • FA 8-3303

Rose Marie Reid
JEWELS OF THE SEA

HONEYCOMB... in a textured glow of latex... this cool perfect dress sheath for swimming that moves with mobile grace from brisk plunges to beach parties.

THE Gay SHOP

1319 Sartori
Downtown Torrance

Open Friday Nights
Until 9 P. M.

Join Gay's Budge Club... No Money Down!
Take Up to 6 Months to Pay!

WE GIVE AND REDEEM DOWNTOWN TORRANCE TRADE STAMPS

All personnel of

THE PALMS

1925 West Carson
will be vacationing
from June 29 to July 13, inclusive.
Our thanks to our many friends and patrons during the past year.
We'll see you on Monday, July 14.

—The Management
Ray Bell—Peggy Delaney