

Miss Solover Earns Honors

Highest honors of her class of some 500 seniors went to Miss Risa Solover, formerly of Torrance, who was valedictorian of the graduating class of Wilson High School, Long Beach, June 15. She is the daughter of Frank S. Solover, executive secretary of Harbor Area Employers' Council, Torrance, and Mrs. Helen C. Deck, of Long Beach. Receiving all "A" grades except one during her high school career, Miss Solover, in addition to being chosen valedictorian, received the award for outstanding senior for Walt Disney's Salute to Youth; the scholarship award of achievement from Belmont Shore Lions Club, and the Long Beach Rotary Club award for top scholastic student. While living in Torrance, she attended Fern Avenue School and will enter Redlands University in the fall.

Swimming Party

Southwest Park Youth Activities committee will sponsor a swimming party from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday at 25226 Tamden way, Torrance. Admission will be free but one adult must accompany each group of from one to six children.

Lioness Hold Progressive Dinner

Hospital Auxiliary Hosts Officers

Outgoing board members of Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary hosted a luncheon party in honor of incoming officers Tuesday in the home of Mrs. John Beeman, 1518 El Prado. Hostesses prepared a punch bowl from which guests refreshed themselves around the pool. Attending the affair were Mrs. Ralph W. McNeil, outgoing president; Mmes. James Anderson, Dean Sears, George Peeke, Robin Bingham, Henry Heinlein, Allan Fyatt, John Stephens, Marion Betts, William Grubb, James Lees, John Schwartz, William Crooker, William Boswell Jr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger, new president.

Cubs Present Circus Days

"Circus days" was the theme for a recent meeting of Cub Pack 222-C in Halldale School. Den mothers, guests and cubs came dressed in costume. Den Two presented a skit of circus acts complete with ringmaster. Den Five demonstrated Indian dances around a council fire and told stories of the dances. Each boy had made his own costume and depicted the various Indian tribes by markings on their faces. Den One also had a circus skit and Den Three performed clown acts. Webelov den gave a fashion show of "latest Paris creations," gunnysacks adorned with frills. Highlight of this very funny skit was a mother-daughter creation modeled by Orville Slettin and his son. The Cubs' last outing was to Knotts Berry Farm and they will attend a night game of baseball with the Dodgers.

Awards Chairman
New awards chairman is John Brown. Receiving awards: Den One, George Griffen, one-year pin and silver arrow; Ronnie Stepp, wolf badge; Larry Jacobson, wolf badge; David Porter, denners stripe and bear badge. Den Two, Donald Cowdry, gold arrow.

Den Four, Danny Dane, gold arrow; Michael Winters, 1-year pin; Randy Watson, wolf badge and gold arrow; Steven Lawler, bear badge. Den Five, Jonathan Clark, gold arrow.
