

Gaye Wilson - Thomas R. Mathew Wed in Neighborhood Church

A former "Miss Torrance" (1956-57), Miss Gaye Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wilson, 3960 Pacific Coast hwy., became Mrs. Thomas R. Mathew at an early afternoon wedding Sunday in the Neighborhood Church of Palos Verdes, Rev. T. A. Lewis, Wallington, Surrey, England, officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with stock, carnations and gladioli.

Walking to the altar with her father, E. E. (Stub) Wilson, the bride wore an Alfred Angelo gown of Chantilly lace over tulle, with V neck and short sleeves. Her veil of imported French silk illusion with Chantilly lace trim was secured to a seed pearl tiara. Her bouquet was of phalaenopsis, lilies of the valley and stephanotis.

Two and a half year old Lori Jean Kasten was flower girl. She wore blue dotted Swiss and carried a white basket of petals. Five year old Kelly Corbin carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Miss Donna Grady was maid of honor. She wore blue dotted Swiss and a large brimmed hat to match and carried a pink carnation bouquet.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Louise Mathew, Jeri Macadam, and Sue de Nevers. All wore pink dotted Swiss with matching hats and white carnation bouquets.

Dale Herberson was best man and ushers were Steve Wilson, Ken Hudson and Vic Ray.

The bride's mother wore an Estevez sheath of blue green brocade with portrait neckline, a feather hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of orchids.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dressmaker suit of beige with tan accessories and a green cymbidium corsage.

A church reception followed the services, followed by another reception in the home of the bride's parents.

The young couple took a wedding trip to Carmel and the San Francisco Bay area and upon their return will make their new home at 13613 Van Ness in Inglewood.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School and El Camino College, where she was Homecoming Queen, student council secretary and majorette.

The bridegroom was senior class president at Huntington Park High School in '53, attended SC for a year and El Camino for a year. He will enter UCLA this fall to complete his engineering course.

Honeymoon at Wisconsin Dells

On a three weeks' honeymoon trip to The Dells in Wisconsin are the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Allen Ree.

Mrs. Ree is the former Doris Wilene Dreyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dreyer of Redondo, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Ree of Torrance. The couple was married June 28 in Christ the King Lutheran Church before the altar decorated with white carnations and gladioli.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore white wedding gown with fitted lace bodice, lace train and paneling of lace on the skirt. Her finger tip veil fell from a seed pearl and sequin crown and her bouquet was of white carnations with a slip corsage of white orchids.

Miss Diane McEvers was maid of honor and bridesmaids were the Misses Edna Dreyer, sister of the bride, Connie Kurtenbach and Lois Laney. All wore turquoise blue crystalline gowns, ballerina length, and crowns from which short veils fell. The maid of honor carried yellow roses, the bridesmaids yellow carnations.

Little Marilyn Midatokke was flower girl in a floor length gown of the same blue and carried a basket of petals which she scattered before the bride.

Ringbearer was Charles Lennit.

Stan Anderson was best man and ushers were Bob O'Callahan, Charles Lennit, Keith Keilior and Dean Dreyer.

Mother of the bride wore yellow chiffon with matching hat and a cymbidium corsage.

The groom's mother wore green lace and a cymbidium corsage.

A reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Redondo High School and the groom is a graduate of Manual Arts High in Los Angeles. He is a plumber.

The new home will be in Torrance.

Welcome Wagon Club
Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club will hold a swim party July 9 at the home of Mrs. Lois Ferry, 4102 W. 176th st.

All newcomers of the Torrance area are cordially invited to attend this informal gathering and become members of the club. For information call FRontier 2-0508.

The primary purpose of the Welcome Wagon Club is to help introduce new comers to neighbors and friends and to assist any worthwhile civic and charitable endeavors.

Torrance Man Takes Bride

Miss Laverne Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carroll of Gardena, became the bride last Sunday of Lowell Edgar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Edgar, 448 E. 219th st., Torrance. The wedding was held at Key-ton Baptist Church.

Organ music was played by Miss Larue Meyers and Sammy and Danny Cheek sang a duet, "I Walk Beside You."

The bride wore a gown of lace and net over taffeta, with form fitting bodice and full skirt decorated with scallops of lace. Lace also set off the neckline and cap sleeves; and her long net gloves.

Her bouquet was of white orchids and carnations.

Miss Jean Carroll was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a pink chiffon gown and matching head band.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Pate Higgins and Mrs. Wanda Meyers.

They wore identically styled gowns in blue and in peach, with large matching hats of net and carried carnations.

Little Grace Carroll, niece of the bride, as flower girl, wore white nylon and lace over taffeta, styled like the bride's gown.

The groom's brother-in-law, James Wells, served as best man and ushers were J. D. Howard and Dewey Wade. George Meyers was ring bearer.

Mother of the bride wore a slate blue dress with white accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Edgar and her husband both attended Banning High School, where he will be graduated next June and she will be graduated in June. The bride has been very active in school affairs and was president of the Damsels at Banning last term.

The groom expects to further his education at Long Beach State College next fall, later attending UCLA, where he will study to become a psychologist.

Club Wins Trophy at Fuchsia Show
North Torrance Branch Fuchsia Society won third place trophy at the Long Beach fuchsia show last weekend with their "Floral Artistry" entry in the "novel" category.

The entry was a 6x8 palette which held eight fuchsias instead of paint. Around the palette were easels of redwood frames, each with a different color background and a growing fuchsia in the center. "Paint pots" holding 14 varieties of fuchsias, were at the foot of the easels.

Frank Hinkel as show chairman, accepted the trophy for the club.

Many members won individual honors, including Jim Hincoun, Maxine Culver and Hinkel.

Seek Musicians at El Camino College
Mendelsohn's "Elijah" will be the summer project of a community choir and symphony orchestra being organized at El Camino College. Fred Lincoln and El Camino professors Calvin Greer and Neil Hill will lead the group.

Choir members, singers and musicians are being sought. Those interested may register at the college June 30, either afternoon or evening. There will be no fee.

Rehearsals are scheduled for Mondays and Wednesdays for six weeks after which the public performance will be given August 15 and 17.
