

DEMONSTRATES DANCE — Kathy Harris, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harris, 23511 Pennsylvania ave., danced at the Statler Hotel last Sunday for the benefit of dance teachers gathered there for the dance studio convention. Kathy has been a student for the past three and a half years of Melvin Kaiser of the Kaiser Dancing Studio in Redondo. As a choreographer teacher at the convention, he had Kathy demonstrate the dance before teaching it to the assembled teachers. Kathy has danced at many fairs and clubs in the area and also in Pasadena.

Candlelight Service Unites Couple In Redondo Methodist Church

North Redondo Methodist Church was the setting July 1 for the evening wedding of Miss Helen Frances Croley and Ronald Irvin Snow. Rev. Harold E. Carson officiated at the double ring ceremony before the altar banked with pink and white carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Croley, 22037 Marjorie ave. and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John E. Snow, 1005 Sartori.

The bride wore a white nylon lace sheath with chiffon overskirt and a halo from which fell her shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Miss Sally Croley was her sister's maid of honor and Bob Clark served as best man. Dick Croley and Dan Callahan were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a blue nylon gown and rhinestone accessories. The groom's mother wore a blue sheath with white accessories. Both had carnation corsages.

YWCA Director Attends Seminar

Mrs. Elsa J. Morris, executive director of the Harbor area YWCA, will participate in a series of three seminar meetings on administration during the month of July. The meetings, which started July 7, will continue for the next two Mondays. They were arranged by the Agency Administration Workshop committee of the Welfare Federation. They are being held at the Jewish Community Building in Los Angeles.

Subject matter will include such topics as organization and how it affects wage determinations; problems of decentralization and wage administration; the basic wage policy, principles of job evaluation systems; establishment of rate ranges; operating principles and procedures of the Chest-Agency classification plan; the merit increases.

Celebrate Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jurekovic, 21515 Redbeam ave., entertained friends at a patio barbecue party in celebration of July 4. Firework displays were enjoyed after dusk.

Vacation Trips

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lilley, and Mrs. Maude Lilliey spent the holiday weekend at Orosi.

Mrs. B. E. Corder and daughter Linda, 808 Cota, left Monday for a visit in Oakland with Mrs. Corder's mother.

Club Entertained At Formal Tea

Las Vecinas ended the past year's activities with two recent social events.

A beautiful formal tea was given at the home of Mrs. Henry Schmaid, 428 Calle Mayor, to welcome 22 provisional members into the organization.

Mrs. Robert Elston and her membership committee, Meses. Hugh Sutherland, David Hurford, Bernard Baird, John Strater, John Diehl, Robert Presley, William Petersen, Donald Meyer, William Manfrass, August Muizer and John Doyle entertained the new members and their sponsors.

Board members of Las Vecinas honored outgoing president Mrs. Henry Schmaid, with a luncheon at Lococo's in Manhattan Beach. Attending the affair were Meses. Charles, Theo Corazza, Walter McClelland, M. L. Barger, Hewitt L. Colman, Robert Elston, Glen Grimsley, Robert Nielson, Maurice Wilson, Lamar Bonnette, Carl Wolfe and A. G. Koester. Mrs. Schmaid was presented with a lovely Danish fruit bowl and matching candle holders.

Home from Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Whiting, 1719 Arlington, have returned from a three week vacation trip in northern California. They stayed a week in Lucerne, near Clearlake, the largest lake entirely within the state. There they enjoyed boating and fishing, and nightly barbecues with others in the resort area.
