IRONING SEEMS EASIER for Vicki Feldon, local artist, when she can contemplate the results of her hobby hours. Son Fred, 9 1/2, student at Madrona School, holds samples of his mother's work which she will exhibit in a one-man art show Aug. 1-15 at the Manhattan Beach library.

Local Artist Plans Exhibit

Vicki Feldon, Torrance artist, will have an exhibit of her drawings, paintings and prints, at the Manhattan Beach Library, 425-15 St., Manhattan Beach. Such varied objects as chess-pieces, houses, oil-derricks, cat-crackers, and people too, have proved a springboard for a bold, vivid and colorful expression in Mrs. Feldon's artwork. The work to be shown has not been exhibited locally. It may be seen through August 15, at the library, with the opening to take place on Friday, August 1.

Leaves for Europe

Bernard R. Collins, a technical representative for North American Aviation which whom he has been for the past ten years, left July 28 for Europe. He expects to be assigned to France for an undetermined length of time.

He and Mrs. Collins just recently returned from an assignment at Robins Air Force Base in Georgia.

Mrs. Collins will join her husband in Europe in the near future.

Jr. Horse Show in Local Area

First licensed junior horse show in the Southland, will be held August 10 under the sponsorship of Las Amigas de Las Lomas, the Rolling Hills auxiliary of Crippled Children's Guild of Othopedic Hospital.

Open to all young riders up to age 18, it will take place at the Empty Saddle Club in Rolling Hills, from 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Under the supervision of the American Horse Shows Association, riders will compete for points, with ribbons and trophies which will count for annual awards to be made by the Pacific Coast Hunter, Jumper and Stock Horse Association.

In addition, there will be three medal classes offered in the show. Altogether 15 classes of competition are scheduled.

The show is expected to bring some of the leading show horses in the State to the local area. A color guard of the Firestone Division of the Sheriff's Mounted Post will be present.

Mrs. Harold M. Stutsman, president of Los Lomas, is general chairman for the show and will be assisted by Meses. Clinton A. Roath, Theodore G. Robinson, Carl R. Fischer, John R. Gerosky, Cecil J. Shaver, John F. McGinn, and Arthur P. Neyhart.

Delta Zetas to Have Barbecue

Members of Delta Zeta sorority and their husbands will have a barbecue dinner August 9 at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Ivins of Hawthorne.

Other summer meetings of the sorority were the bridge party held in the home of Mrs. Etton H. Wisdom, 114 Vista del Sol, Torrance, and a social gathering in the home of Miss Barbara Lemke. The latter occasion was in the nature of a farewell party for Mrs. George Furtado and Mrs. Gilbert Mitchell who are moving with their families to other points in California.

Mrs. Furtado has just completed a term of office as program chairman of the local chapter, and president of the Southern California Council of Delta Zeta.

Return from Guam

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gremminger and six month old daughter, Christie Jean, will dock in San Francisco August 1st, after a two year stay in Guam where he served in the USN. Mrs. Gremminger is the former Loretta Lee Page, and they will return to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Page, 2026 Middlebrook rd.

Lionesses Plan Social Season

Lioness Club president, Mrs. L. Milton Isbell, entertained her officers and chairmen Thursday night at her home, 1516 Beach ave. Committee chairmen were ratified and plans made for the coming social season.

Named were Mrs. Abe Robinson, sunshine; Mrs. Ike McTee, hostess; Mrs. Marjorie Olson and Jerry Radisch, telephone; Mrs. Fred Boren, membership; Mrs. William Zappas, auditor; Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt, publicity.

First meeting of the year will be held August 5 in the home of Mrs. W. B. Hickcox, 3002 Torrance Blvd. Mrs. Isbell will be co-hostess.

First social event will be a trip on August 19 to the Officers Club at Terminal Island.

Other planned social events are a progressive dinner, an outdoor barbecue and the annual Christmas party.

Shower Honors Kathy Fagan

Miss Kathy Fagan, 3448 Newton st., bride-elect of Jim Peacock, was honored Saturday at a miscellaneous shower given by her cousin Nadine Fagan of Long Beach and Marion Osecheck of Compton.

The party was held in the home of an aunt, Mrs. Dina Fagan, 4826 Faculty ave., Long Beach.

Guests included schoolmates of Kathy, and included the Meses Delores Hamley, Marianne Del Nero, Kathy Creamer, Joyce Leatherman, Joellen Towery, Jeannie Van Sickle, and Mmes. Joyce Hager, Conaere Malkus, Colleen Kingsbury, Paul Del Nero, Philip Fagan, Jr., Mrs. Anne Fagan, Mrs. Mary Peacock and Mrs. Catherine Padock.

Following the shower of gifts, a buffet dinner was enjoyed, at which time Mrs. G. Howe and her sons, John and Tony, joined the party. John is to be soloist at the wedding August 23 in St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church.

Brownies Review Year's Activities

Recently Brownie Troop 1576 had their final outing of the year in the form of a family picnic at Peck's Park in San Pedro. The girls thoroughly enjoyed themselves and thought over the many good times they had had together during the year starting with a Halloween party on Oct. 31st, then investiture of four new girls on Nov. 7th, December 23rd the troop sang Christmas carols at the Crestwood Convalescent Home for the Aged in Long Beach followed by a Christmas party at the home of their leader Mrs. Iris Meyers.

Habits and customs of the Indians were studied and tomtoms and totem poles made during the first part of the year.

March 11th a skit was presented for their sponsors, the members of Hal'dale Avenue P.T.A. March 22nd they toured a newspaper office after which each girl wrote about a news item from their own program and a simple paper was printed for the troop.

April 1st, during Easter vacation, they attended a showing of "The Seven Wonders of the World." May 22nd meant a trip to the local Western Union office where a telegram was dispatched to the principal of their school, Mrs. Amanda Wilhelm.

June 14th, the second birthday of the troop, all enjoyed a trip to Knott's Berry Farm with chicken dinners for all. The remainder of the day was spent exploring the interesting sights and rides available.

New Troop On June 21st came the parting of ways for many of the girls when half of the troop flew up to form a new Girl Scout troop 2290. Mrs. Iris Meyers was the first to cross the bridge at Banning Park in fly-up ceremonies and will be the leader of Troop

Sunday Candlelight Service Unites Couple in Christ the King Church

Baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums with touches of lavender, graced the altar at Christ the King Lutheran Church Sunday afternoon, when marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Ellen Marie Koehn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McBride and Donald Gene Strumpfer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Strumpfer. Rev. Maynard Mid-thun officiated at the double ring service before the candlelit altar.

Mrs. Clifford Bredman played the organ background music and accompanied Walter Wittel who sang "Oh Perfect Love." "Communion Benediction" and "The Lord's Prayer."

White ribbon bows with touches of lavender set off the center aisle down which the bride was escorted by her father, on a white runner. The bridal gown was a Maurer Original with bodice of white imported lace and Sabrina neckline. An embroidered tulle overskirt fell over ruffled tulle. A pearl crown held the fingertip illusion veil trimmed at the edge with lace and pearls.

Her bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley surrounding a double white orchid.

Mrs. Lawrence Gimenez (Betty Peterson) was matron of honor. She wore lavender nylon organza with white flower print, fashioned with bouffant skirt and a white taffeta underskirt. Her lavender crown hat was covered with eye level lavender veil. Her flowers were white carnations, lavender sweet peas and an orchid.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lloyd Spegal (Marilyn Gillibrand), Miss Nancy DeMoss, Mrs. Joseph Kasko (June Rambo), and Mrs. Calvin Browning (Myrna Rom-Calvin Browning (Myrna Rom-matron except for deeper tone. They carried baskets of white carnations and lavender sweet-peas. Petite Wendy Browning, as flower girl, wore a white nylon dress and a white headpiece of stephanotis over her long brown curls. She dropped rose petals before the bride.

Best man was Frank Royal and ushers were the couple's brothers Bill and Tom Koehn and Ed and Jim Strumpfer.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose print dress with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a peacock blue silk dress with white accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church. Registering the guests was Miss Judy Gillibrand, who wore a pale lavender dress to carry out the wedding color scheme. Mints and punch were served from a table centered with the five-tiered lavender and white wedding cake.

The young couple are on a three-week wedding trip to Canada following a brief stay at the Miramar Hotel in Santa Barbara.

The new residence will be established at 2930 W. 167th St., Torrance.

The bride is a 1953 graduate of Torrance High School where she was Homecoming Queen and a lifetime member of the Scholarship Society. She received her A.A. degree from El Camino College and her B.A. in education from Long Beach State College. She taught fourth grade at Big Bear Lake last year and this coming year will teach in Torrance.

The groom is a graduate of Leuzinger High School, class of '51 and attended El Camino College. He is presently employed by a Huntington Park firm.
