Etta Kappa Sorority Combines Installation and Jewel Ceremony

The Eta Kappa chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha combined two climatic events recently at a banquet held in the Terrace Room of a local restaurant. The new officers for 1959 were installed, and there was an official acceptance of six new pledges as "Sisters."

Officers selected to guide the group activities for the year are: Mrs. Roland Stamm, president; Mrs. Robert Holmes, vice president; Mrs. Lewis Verne, recording secretary; Mrs. John Mesplou, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Espinosa, treasurer; Mrs. Stamm has just served two terms as president of Evelyn Carr Parent Teacher Association and has been very active in community affairs.

Before a table decorated in blue and gold, the colors of the sorority, the E.S.A. insignia banner in the foreground, four girls received their jewel pins upon the culmination of a years study and work with the group. Mrs. Bartling, assisted by Mrs. Charles Leitchweiss, president, Mrs. Kenneth McVey, vice president pinned the following: Mrs. Betty Cundiff, Mrs. Olga Mazzaro, Mrs. Irene Meehan, Mrs. Sally Moreno, Mrs. Ida Petrucelli and Mrs. Rose Sciascia had received their jewel pins earlier before leaving on their vacations. Eta Kappa had the largest number of pledges for the year in Mira Costa Council.

A honor bestowed on the chapter this year at the regional Conclave was having one of their members selected as "Outstanding Sorority Member of the Year." Mrs. Kenneth McVey, vice president, rush captain was chosen from the seventeen chapters represented in the Mira Costa Council. Judging was based on contributions to the sorority and to the community as a whole. A traveling silver trophy with her name engraved and year received will be held by the Eta Kappas for the year.

The banquet theme was "Rocket Upward" and the head table centerpiece was a huge rocket labeled ETA KAPPA, in a taking off position. Individual favors and place cards were flying saucers with miniature space women at the controls. These were symbolic of the members soaring into new orbits for their work of service to the community in the coming year.

Mrs. Charles Pfeiffer, parliamentarian, gave a "thank you" talk and presented a gift to outgoing president, Mrs. Leitchweiss, in behalf of the chapter. Mrs. Kenneth McVey welcomed Mrs. Stamm and new officers. The entire group was thanked for an outstanding year of achievements.

Mrs. Roland Stamm conducted a short business meeting outlining some summer activities for the group. She plans on an executive board meeting soon. Other members attending the affair were: Mrs. Dorothy Marquis, Mrs. Vera Trujillo.

Committee in charge of the plans for the banquet were: Mrs. Kenneth McVey, chairman; Mrs. Louis Verne, Mrs. Carlos Espinosa, Mrs. Stewart Angus, Mrs. Charles Pfeiffer, Mrs. Charles Leitchweiss.

your child can be a water baby

Children who learn to swim at an early age tend to be healthier and more self-confident in later life.

Instruction designed for ages 1 year old and up.

- Swimming skills which will give your child a lifetime of healthful recreation can be learned easier and more thoroughly with our scientifically designed program.
- Classes are always small—never more than 5. Our instructors have long experience with young children and can lead even the most hesitant child to enjoy the pleasure of swimming.

New sessions begin Monday, Aug. 4. Classes are held 3 times per week for three weeks.
