CDA Continues Benefit Supports

Continuation of a one-year scholarship for a girl graduate of Nativity school and increasing the aid for education of a priest-brother, were among business matters transacted at a recent meeting of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America. Mrs. Laurence Derouin, grand regent, presided.

An outline of the activities scheduled for the court year was given by the program chairman, Mrs. Richard Ban. Mrs. Michael Donish, in charge of ways and means, told of money-raising plans. She reported on the recent "coffee" for Camp Teresita Pines and assisted Mrs. Robert Wilson as "auctioneer" for a "white elephant" sale which followed the business meeting.

Other chairmen reporting included Mesdames James White (sunshine), James Fornell (extension), Andrew Rabel (librarian), James Carlin (share the faith), and Norman Baker (legislation).

Attend Mass

Fifteen members of the court attended the annual patriotic mass at St. Vibiani's cathedral on July 4. His Eminence, James Francis Cardinal McIntyre was present at this colorful event, offered in thanksgiving for our country's freedom.

Mrs. Derouin recently attended the Camp Teresita Pines board meeting at the camp office in Los Angeles. Mrs. Marie Isley told of her day as hostess accompanying new campers on the morning journey and, after lunch and a tour of the camp, returning via the same bus with girls who had spent the prior week in camp.

Refreshments were served by Miss Virginia Shaner, and Mesdames Robert Wilson, Loretta Hensley, Paul Hingtgen, An-

Woman's Clubs Plan Projects

Ways and means projects for Torrance Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club this coming season, were discussed July 28 at the meeting held in the home of Mrs. Frank Neff Jr., 23426 Shadycroft. Mrs. Don Wolf, president, and Mrs. J. L. Clifford, ways and means chairman, represented the senior club and Mrs. J. G. Louvier, president, and Mrs. Neff, third vice president, represented the junior club.

The joint ways and means project of the two clubs will be a fashion show to be held the latter part of November.

The other main projects will be Christmas items, the senior club to sell candy and the Juniors to sell Christmas cards.

All money raised will go for the clubs philanthropy.

Club Discusses Mental Health

Aspects of methods for treating mental health problems was the subject under discussion Thursday night at a meeting of the Pilot Club. Presenting arguments of those favoring and those against the Doyle-Short bill which provides for centers set up by the individual community and aided if necessary, by the government, were Herma Tillim and Mrs. Clara Dougherty, club president.

The program was preceded by a turkey dinner to which a number of guests were invited.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Delafaire, 1116 Maple ave. The dinner was served from long tables set up in the patio shelter.

Fuchsia Society Events Planned

Incoming and outgoing board members of the North Torrance branch of the California Fuchsia Society met July 28 for a dinner at Little Sir restaurant. Plans were discussed for many coming club events and particularly a picnic to be held soon in Alondra Park.

Final plans were made for the annual September "Jinney Dinner" and the Christmas dance. Membership in the club is open and may be discussed with Mrs. Phillip Clark, president, or other club members.

To Install Officers

Installation of new officers will be held August 12 in McMaster Hall, 174 Yukon. The club's first president, Mrs. Ilene Allison, will conduct the ceremony.

To be installed are Mrs. Phillip Clark, president; Mrs. James Culver, vice president; Mrs. Ida Hechinger, treasurer; Mrs. Frank Hinkel, secretary; Mrs. Stephen Boyko, representative; Mrs. Anna Glen, alternate.

Speaker of the evening will be William Taylor of the California National Fuchsia Society. A fuchsia plant table with some patented varieties will be on display.

Refreshments will be served. Anyone interested in gardening will be welcome.
