'Potted' Driver Major Source of Car Crashes

Drivers under the influence of alcohol continue to present a problem on our highways says the California Highway Patrol.

"During the first five months of this year, drivers who had been drinking were involved in an average of one accident every 30 minutes on the rural highways of California," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "This includes those who were obviously drunk, those under the influence, and those who had been drinking although the degree of impairment was not known."

"Although a small reduction in accidents involving drinking drivers has been experienced thus far during 1958, the driver who drinks is too frequently involved in fatal and injury accidents which is a major concern to enforcement personnel," Caldwell stated. "In the enforcement field, the Patrol made 5,190 arrests for drunk driving during the first five months, an increase of 30, or 0.6 per cent compared to 1957."

"Frequently drivers take the wheel of a motor vehicle after a few drinks thinking they are capable of meeting any emergency. Investigation proves, however, that much of the driving while under the influence of alcohol can be attributed to a lack of realization of the hazards involved with such actions," he continued.

"When a situation arises calling for fast, accurate judgment and action to avoid an accident, the driver who has been drinking finds his reactions slowed to the point where he may be in trouble." The Commissioner concluded, "The best and safest policy is to refrain from driving if you have been drinking."

Dogs, Juvenile Masters Learn to Behave Themselves in New Course

The children's dog training class in Walteria Park started last Saturday, with 33 children, ages 8 to 14 years enrolled. Conducted by the South Bay Obedience Club and sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, this class teaches the children how to train their dogs. In the seven weeks allotted to the class the dogs will learn to behave themselves around other dogs and people, and to heel, sit, stay, and come on command.

The class is conducted by the club's trainer, Roy Smith, with the assistance of experienced club members. This is the second children's summer class to be held by the club. The class of last summer had eleven children and dogs. These summer classes, for children only, are conducted by the club as a civic project helpful to the children and to the community dog problem. A nominal tuition fee of 50 cents per dog is charged for the seven week course.

In training their dogs the children learn what it is like to be on the "other side of the fence." In this case they give the orders and find out what it is like when their orders are not obeyed. As a result of this, most parents of such children find their children more attentive and obedient after the class than they were before.

Industry' Home Chairmen Named for Chest Drive

Industry and home met this week as two new Community Chest campaign leaders were announced by Harbor area chairman Glenn Koger.

Working to assure success in industry will be Tom Tracy, assistant to the President of Coleman Engineering Co., 3500 Torrance blvd. As Commerce and Industry chairman for the 1958 Community Chest fund raising drive, Tracy will assume responsibility for firms throughout the seven communities of the Harbor area.

On the home front Mrs. Arthur C. Ackerson, 517 No. Centre st., will be joining with Mrs. Bernice Goodwin, 3031 Torrance blvd., as area residential chairmen. Mrs. Goodwin is chairman in the Palos Verdes, Rolling Hills and Torrance communities and new chairman Mrs. Ackerson will be serving in Gardena, San Pedro, Harbor City, Lomita and Wilmington.

Of special interest to both the new chairmen are the Community Chest youth services. Tracy's son, Tom Jr., is an outstanding Eagle Scout and Mrs. Ackerson, who is the mother of six children and has six grandsons, is very much interested in her future scouts.

"Whether we are in the home, in offices, in industry or even in school, the Community Chest is important to all of us," Tracy said. "Without the Chest we could have no confidence in meaningful and effective cure of those in our own communities—perhaps even in our own homes—who need care."

Most Harbor JC Students Come From Four Schools

Fifty-three per cent of incoming Harbor College freshmen come from four area high schools, but the remaining 47 per cent come from other city, county and state preparatory schools, from 45 other states, and from 15 foreign countries, according to a statistical report interpreted today by college Dean of Admissions and Guidance William H. McMasters.

The report is based upon a study of 198 high schools attended by 2235 freshmen, or Alpha students, entering Harbor at the beginning of this college year.

The 1178 students came from San Pedro, Banning, Narbonne and Washington High Schools. Forty-two per cent of this total, or 491, were from San Pedro, 23 1/2 per cent, or 276, from Banning; 19 per cent, or 227, from Narbonne and 15 1/2 per cent, or 182, from Washington. When these figures were extended over a four-year period, involving approximately 4500 freshmen, the same percentages held.

80,000 Warrants Issued for Motorists Who Fail to Show up on Citations

More than 80,000 warrants have been issued this year in Los Angeles for motorists who fail to appear in court and failed to keep their word.

"These motorists are costing themselves and the taxpayers needless expense," J. T. Blalock, president of the Greater Los Angeles Safety Council, said today as he explained the importance of appearing in court or posting bail on or before the date specified on traffic citations.

When motorists sign a citation, Blalock said, they are not admitting guilt, but are merely promising to appear in court or post bail on or before a certain date. Judges take a dim view of violators who fail to keep their word, and although they levy stiff penalties to those who are brought in on a warrant, the fines seldom offset the cost to the taxpayers of processing and serving the warrant.

When a motorist fails to appear, Blalock said, the court issues a warrant. Before serving it, the police department sends a letter to the motorist, who has now committed a misdemeanor under Section 742 of the Vehicle Code. The warrant remains in the police department's pending file for three weeks.

Thirty to 35 per cent of those who fail to appear on the original citation, Blalock said, appear in court following the letter from the police department. Those who fail to respond to the letter are subsequently picked up on the warrants.

Blalock said the outstanding warrants are sent to the various courts.

Realty Board Head Announces State Convention

Harry Bowker, president of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors, announced that he has received information from Clive Graham of Long Beach, president of the California Real Estate Association, that the 54th annual CREA convention will be held at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco on November 6-8. According to Graham, reservations for the convention are already being received at the CREA office at a record rate, indicating that the registration of last year's convention in Los Angeles will be equalled or exceeded this year in San Francisco.

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, famed author of "The Power of Positive Thinking," and minister of the historic Collegiate Church in New York City, will be a principal speaker at the convention's general session, said Bowker. Another outstanding speaker scheduled for the convention is Arthur H. "Red" Motley, president of Parade Publications, Inc., a Sunday picture magazine supplement distributed in newspapers in 59 different cities with a circulation of eight million.

"We are indeed fortunate to have two of the most popular and sought after convention speakers in the nation address our convention," said Bowker. "Dr. Peale, with his inspirational message, and Red Motley, with a down-to-earth talk on selling, will make this one of the finest programs in the history of CREA."

Bowker said that a large delegation from Torrance and Lomita is planning to attend the convention.

Artists Invited to Enter Poster Contest for Drive

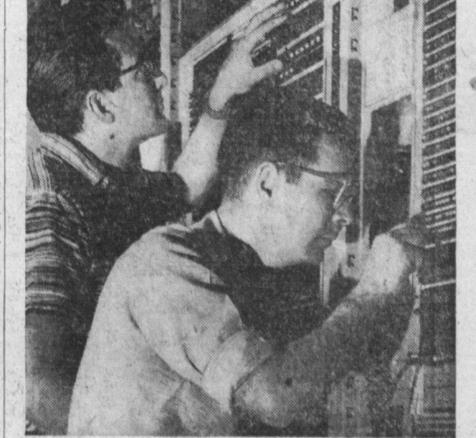

Artists throughout Los Angeles County were invited today by the County Tuberculosis Association to design a Christmas Seal to be used nationwide in 1960.

A national $500 contest, the winning design will be reproduced billions of times on the traditional Christmas Seals which help brighten the Yule season and finance the fight against tuberculosis.

Design specifications may be obtained from the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Los Angeles County, 1670 Beverly blvd., Los Angeles 26, the local office of the national voluntary health agency.

R. S. Pyle, your Telephone Manager in Torrance

Over the years you've come to expect your phone calls to go through swiftly and smoothly. To keep your service dependable, we make sure our equipment's working well all along the line. And we've developed lots of ways to head off trouble before it starts. For instance, in the maintenance center above, a special line tester checks thousands of lines in just one hour. It lets us know if anything needs fixing. And this is just one of many testers, alarms and trouble-spotters that our people use. In town and out in the country, we guard your service at all times with watchful eyes.

A curious glass cylinder will be an important part of tomorrow's telephone service. It's a memory tube.

For a limited time, the memory tube remembers what fifty people dial into it. Your telephone system of tomorrow also will have tiny photo plates, each able to remember 65,000 bits of information. And there'll be electronic switches that will make connections a thousand times faster than today's switches.

Scientists and engineers at Bell Laboratories are experimenting with these and many other electronic devices. Eventually, they'll make it possible for customer phone service to be designed to meet almost every individual need.

For instance, suppose you call your Aunt Sue back East quite often. Your phone could be fixed so you would dial a single number such as "2." The tubes and plates and switches would take over—knowing you want Aunt Sue.

The mechanism would flick your call across the nation, find Aunt Sue's phone and ring it—all in an instant.

Next year the first "electronic" telephone building at Morris Illinois, will be ready for testing. Telephone engineers believe it will be the beginning of better, faster and more useful telephoning than ever before—Pacific Telephone.
