ROGER AMBILL

Ambill on Way to Crisis Area

Roger Ambill, musician seaman, of Torrance, expects to go to Lebanon aboard an aircraft carrier, following a two weeks furlough spent here.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ambill, of 1556 W. 222nd st., the sailor will be assigned to the USS Randolph which will shortly leave for Beirut, Lebanon.

Ambill, a graduate of Narbonne High School, was assigned to the U.S. Naval School of Music in Washington, D.C. until July.

His father has been a mailman in the "Shoestring" section east of Torrance, for several years.

Yankees Win LL Top Loop Spot

Harvey's Yankees have clinched the top spot in the standings of the Riviera Little League which held its final game Thursday.

The Yankees ended the season with a 16 win, 4 loss score. The Orioles were second, followed by the Tigers, Indians, White Sox and Red Sox.

Members of the Yankee team are James Chase, Tom DiJulio, Edward Holmes, Mike Jefferson, Jim Jennings, Desmond LaMotte, Greg Madden, Raul Matute, John Minech, Coleman Meek, Forrest Sedgwick, Irving Simons.

Others are Sid Sparks, Steve Tanturi, Chris Wing, Greg Wadden, and Edward Holmes.

J. B. Madden was the manager and Ed LaMotte the coach.

FARM FRESH PRODUCE

Hawaiian PINEAPPLE
FRESH
SWEET • JUICY • RIPE

Here are a pair of ideas to brighten a special meal. Hollow out a fresh pineapple and fill with fresh fruit. Be sure to include apple slices, orange and grapefruit sections as well as cubes of fresh pineapple.

Another idea is to cut your pineapple into sticks and sprinkle lightly with powdered sugar.
