Return from Vacation
Mr. and Mrs. George Meyers, 24429 Hawthorne Blvd., have returned from a two week vacation spent with friends at Beaumont in Cherry Valley and in San Diego.

Kathleen Fagan-James Peacock Wed Saturday at St. Lawrence

Miss Kathleen Anne Fagan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Fagan, 3448 Newton st., became the bride last Saturday morning, of James Lin Peacock, son of Mrs. Mary Peacock of Hawthorne. Father Charles Ara officiated at the double ring ceremony before a flower filled altar in St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of lace over tafetta styled with bodice of lace and bustle detail on the full floor length skirt. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

Attend Bride

Miss Nadine Fagan of Long Beach was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were the Misses Marion Osecheck of Compton, Delores Hainley and Geneva Van Sickle of Long Beach. Their gowns were of pink satin styled with balloon skirts. Their short veils were caught to tiny headpieces and they carried cascade bouquets of pink roses. Mothers of the couple wore shades of blue with white accessories and corsages of white roses.

Following a reception in the church hall, the young couple left on their honeymoon in northern California. The new home will be in Downey.

The bride came to Torrance from Long Beach where she received her early education. Both she and her bridegroom currently attend El Camino College. The bride is employed at Hughes Aircraft and the groom works for the Southern California Gas Co.

John A. McNeil Takes Vows As Catholic Brother

Traveling "caravan" style to Santa Cruz to see their son John A. McNeil take his first profession of vows as a Catholic Brother of the Society of Mary, at the Star of the Sea Parish Church, were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. McNeil, 3313 Sonoma st., Torrance, their daughter Jean and her fiancé Jerry Doyle, Mrs. McNeil's sister, Mrs. Clair Height and her niece, Linda Printy.

Also Mrs. Marge Lucero, Ronnie Keller, Bill Lyddon, Timothy Adelsperger, and Gale Doherty. The profession of vows followed completion of 13 months of study at the Marianist Noviate in Santa Cruz.

Have Reception

A reception followed the impressive ceremonies, after which the McNeil party and their son, together with several other new Brothers, their families, and friends, had dinner at Harry's Surf Rider restaurant overlooking the ocean.

The following day, Mr. and Mrs. McNeil, John, Jean, and

Vacationers Home

Mrs. Anthony Naiden and son Peter have returned to their home in Southwick, Mass., following a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Nelson, 1738 Martina ave.

Peter spent six weeks in Torrance, returning here with his grandparents, the Nelsons, following their five week visit in Southwick, Mrs. Naiden had only a short visit with her parents before returning home with Peter.

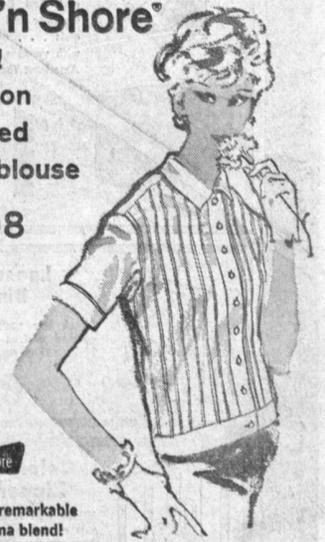

Linda Printy, accompanied by Brother Terrance Wong, who had also just taken his first vows, and his father from Honolulu, spent the day sight-seeing in Del Monte's Forest, the Seventeen Mile Drive, and the Monterey Peninsula. They stopped for luncheon at Fishermans' Wharf and spent some time at the Carmel Mission.

After leaving their son at the Novitiate at Santa Cruz, to pack for the Marianist Scholastics, St. Mary's College, the McNeils and Linda Printy continued their vacation. Leaving Mr. McNeil in Oakland for a visit with his sister, Kay Lanz, formerly of Torrance, Mrs. McNeil and the girls drove to San Francisco where they shopped and enjoyed further sight-seeing.
