Fleming PTA Has Planning Session

The theme "Blueprints for Today and Tomorrow" was chosen recently by the program planning committee of Fleming Jr. High PTA, meeting in the office of vice principal Mrs. Ruth Ware.

Others attending were P. E. Turner, principal; Meses, Joseph Butler, PTA president; C. L. Wilson, program chairman; Judson Bowers, Founders' Day chairman; R. H. Goverman, press chairman.

Plans were announced for a welcoming tea to be held at the school October 28. "Surveying the Site" is the evening's theme. The occasion will serve as an orientation meeting for parents of new pupils at the school. Speakers will tell of the counseling and youth services offered.

A report on the growth of the school will be made at the November 25 meeting, the theme of which is "Strong Foundation." "The Original Blueprint" is Founders' Day theme, February 24. A speaker will discuss juvenile problems.

The annual Open House program will take place in April, "Tour of Inspection" the day's theme.

Final meeting of the school year will be on May 26 with year-end reports and a talk on the summer recreational facilities.

The PTA also plans a "Coffee Break" for the teachers before the start of school, and a potluck luncheon at the end of the school year.

HOT ROASTED PEANUTS may be on the menu for Brownie Troop 2000 this fall. Members Vicky Townsend, 20951 Brighton Ave. and Marly Lehr, 20845 Brighton Ave., have been busy caring for plants since April. Usually grown in sandy soil, the oval clumps need little water. The plant, which has yellow flowers, grows about five inches tall and resembles alfalfa. Harvest time is in October. The girls are hoping for a large crop.

Artists Plan Outdoor Exhibit

Southland artist members of the South Bay Community Art Association have completed plans for an outdoor art show to be held Sunday from 10 a.m. to dusk, at the intersection of Palos Verdes dr. and Crest rd.

Easels displaying paintings of the members will be set up along the busy highway, in the vicinity of Grandview Real Estate offices. The parking lot there will be available for those who will want to stop to see the exhibition.

Among the well known artists who will exhibit are Keith Crown, Jack McClain, Kathryn Fells, Dale Sexton, Dorothy Hume, Robert Neathery, George Ormsby, Elsa Nelson, Lucy Meighan, William Greene, Louis Monza, John Perkins, Mont Gillett, Esther Wynn, and Vicki Feldon.

Membership information about the South Bay Community Art Association may be obtained by calling Mrs. Osna Greene at FR 5-0340.
