

Swim Program Starts at ECC

Recreational swimming began at El Camino College Monday. The following schedule for public use of the pools was released by Merle F. Sloan, director of student personnel at the college.

Pools will be opened to the public on Monday through Friday from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. A "Family Hour" for small children accompanied by one or both parents has also been scheduled for Fridays from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. Adult swimming will follow from 8 to 9 p.m.

Additional hours for swimming by children under the age of 18 are slated for Saturday mornings from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

No charge is made for the use of the El Camino facilities; however, swimmers must furnish their own suits and towels. Women must wear bathing caps.

Dollar Drive By Democrats

Torrance Democrats hope to raise between $7000 and $8000 in donations for the Dollars for Democrats campaign to be started this weekend.

Dick Floyd, member of the County Democratic Central Committee, said that volunteer workers will conduct a door-to-door canvas tomorrow through Monday to raise funds for candidates.

Contributions will also be sought during the Mad Midnight Sale which opens Saturday at midnight in the downtown Torrance shopping area.

Celebrates First Birthday Today

Harold W. (Buster) Murray Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Murray, 2418 Arlington ave., is one year old today. He is the only native Californian in his family who came to Torrance from Rhode Island.

Attending the party which will celebrate the occasion will be his niece Candace (Candy) Anderson, aged 16 months.

Individual cup cakes frosted in white and bearing one red candle will be served.

Change Airport Farming Lease

Revision of a lease to farm at Torrance Municipal Airport was proposed to the City Council by City Attorney Stanley Remel-meyer.

acreage on the airport for agricultural use is indeterminate, the rental should be changed from a flat $3000 per year fee to 25 per cent of the price of the harvest.
