CHARCOAL BARBECUED TURKEY PARTS

Lay pieces of turkey in a roasting pan as you would fry a chicken. Sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper, and cover with your favorite barbecue sauce. Marinate at least 8 hours, or overnight. Split skin of turkey and rub sauce under it on meat, but do not remove skin. Grill turkey parts over charcoal coals, turning pieces frequently, and painting pieces with pastry brush dipped in melted butter. Cooking time, approximately 45 minutes.
