DO YOU WANT PEACE?

Certainly, peace is one of the basic desires of every American — But true peace, "the peace that passeth all understanding," comes only through Christ.

SEEK CHRIST AND FIND PEACE

"Sins Which Crucified Jesus" is the subject announced by Rev. Morgan Gales for the 9:15 and 10:45 A.M. Sunday Morning Services at the First Baptist Church of Torrance. He will be speaking at the 7:30 Evangelistic Hour on the evening of "Almost or Almost-er." The Adult Choir will be singing at the morning services and the Youth Choir in the evenings, both under the direction of Ron Craker, Director of Music.

Sunday School for Nursery age through is held at 9:15 A.M. and High School through the adult classes meet at 10:45 during the second worship service. Story Hour and Extended Hour are conducted at 10:45 and Nursery is open for all services.

The Pastor's Class meets at 6:15 in the study and B.Y.P. groups for all ages meet at 8:15.

The First Baptist Church is located at 2118 West Carson Street and a welcome is extended to all.

Bert Shattuck Is New Scoutmaster

Bert Shattuck has assumed the position of Scoutmaster for Boy Scout Troop 315-X, sponsored by Torrance Moose Lodge 785. Paul Nevel and Spider Tidland will be assistants. Shattuck will also be the Explorer advisor, assisted by Bill Callum.

At a meeting held in the Moose Lodge rooms, Sept. 25, Leon Carpenter was introduced as the new awards chairman. Receiving awards at the court of honor, were Timmy Nevel, Kenneth Shattuck, Davie Deniz, and Rodney Goldsmith, second class; Leon Carpenter, Steve Tidland, Danny Rickard, Mike Rogow, and Ed Foster, first class.

Joe Mike Scirica, Frank Berrier, and John Erickson received star promotions. Others earning merit badges were Billy Engstrom and Billy Polhek.

Explorers receiving awards were Fred Bucher, Charles Pavlu, and Chester Allen. Movies of the troop's summer camp trip were shown and the Explorers put on a skit patterned after Steve Allen's TV show.

Jewish Center Sisterhood to Present October Fashion Show

Members of Gardena Valley Jewish Center Sisterhood will sponsor their second annual fashion show, "Autumn Designs" the evening of Oct. 16 at the Center, 14725 S. Cramer-cy Pl., Gardena. Door prizes, a Las Vegas weekend for two, and refreshments will also be offered.

Mrs. Charles (Fay) Price, ways and means chairman, reports that 250 tickets have been distributed by the Sisterhood and tickets will be available at the door.

Plan Meeting of Columbia Association

The Columbia Association for Retarded Children will meet Oct. 28, at 7:30 p.m. in Meadow Park School, 3860 230th St. Refreshments will be served and baby sitting services provided. The association held their first fall meeting Sept. 23. Principal Lester Foster outlined the program offered for retarded children of Torrance: Inglewood, Lennox, Hawthorne, and Wiseburn. Columbia is a public school.

Dental Assistants Honor Doctors

Harbor District Dental Assistants will set sail for a gala evening Oct. 10 as they honor their doctors and their wives at dinner and an evening of entertainment at the new Petroleum Club, 3636 Linden Ave., Long Beach.
