Second guest of Torrance Junior Woman's Club under their international friendship program, Jonathan Adeyeye of Nigeria, Africa, was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boylan, 2761 Grand Summit Rd. Adeyeye is a high school principal and Anglican priest. He was educated in England, is married, and has four children.

The Boylans met their guest at the airport and took him on a tour of Torrance, including a trip to City Hall where he was presented with a key to the city by Mayor Albert Isen.

Steak and Pie

The police department, newspaper offices, a tour through the Palos Verdes Hills and a stop at Marineland, and a visit with Dr. Bruce Magnor of South High School, were followed by a typical American dinner served at the Boylan home—steak and apple pie. Invited to meet Adeyeye were a local medical doctor and an electronics engineer and their wives.

Adeyeye was much interested in meeting city officials and learning something of the manner in which American city government works.
