

Pajama Game to Open Nov. 7

A delightful pair of triple-threat stars, Nancy Clair Wallace and Rick Winter will appear in the Edward Knowlton-Robert McCaman production of the South Bay Civic Light Opera's presentation of "The Pajama Game" which opens at Redondo High School Nov. 7.

Rick Winter is familiar to many South Bay Theater-goers for his many straight dramatic portrayals at the Chapel Theater, and is considered to be one of our best young actors. However, in this role of "Heinze" in the Pajama Game he is a singer, dancer and actor.

Nancy Clair Wallace, the opposite romantic number, is a petite blonde of less than five feet, who bounces about the stage as though the boards were hot. She gets involved in a plot to steal "her key" and in general gives a singing-dancing-acting performance that is just

New Southwood Officers to be Seated Nov. 12

President Austin Overholtz, and other new officers of the Southwood Homeowners Association will take office at the next meeting of the association Nov. 12 at 8 p.m. in the Anza School.

Other new officers include Arthur A. Tuttle, vice president; Mrs. Charles Eichler, secretary; Willis Delperdang, treasurer, and Paul Visser, Lee Sechler, John Brady, Mrs. Bob Towers and Gordon Stephens, board members.

Sechler is the outgoing president.

Sechler is the outgoing president. good fun. An accomplished little actress, she comes from the Morgan Theater where she last appeared in "On the Town."

Although the show has been in rehearsal for two months this pair of characters still manage to break up the cast every time they go on stage.

Hall Endorses Hospital Bonds

Passage of Propositions D, E and F, the Los Angeles County General Hospital Bond Issues, was urged today by James M. Hall, former Torrance city attorney.

The three bond issues totaling $14,913,000 would finance construction of an outpatient clinic, a building housing the School of Nursing and resident nurses and living quarters for interns and resident physicians at General Hospital.

FITZGERALD HONORED
Dick Fitzgerald, manager of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, has been appointed to the 11-man National Editorial Committee of "The Journal", official publication of the American Chamber of Commerce Executives, according to an announcement by President Douglas H. Timmerman.

Minister Will Address Y's Men

The Torrance Y's Men Club of the YMCA will host Rev. Hugh Percy of the Torrance Ministerial Association at the Club's bi-monthly dinner meeting Nov. 4 at the YMCA.

Rev. Percy, minister of St. Andrews Episcopal Church, will be the first in a series of speakers examining contemporary religious life in America. He will comment on the major trends in Protestantism today with special emphasis on the cults and sects which are playing such an increasingly important part in American life. The average person is not too well-informed about these smaller religious bodies and Rev. Percy's presentation will clear up much of the misunderstanding.
