Eta Kappa Chapter Aids Charity
 Members of Eta Kappa Chapter in Torrance participate in many philanthropic projects during the year and proceeds are donated to worthy charitable organizations.
 This year Eta Kappa Chapter presented "Korny Kapers Variety Show" with an added Melodrama, "The Perils of Fanny" which was greatly enjoyed by a full-house audience. Proceeds from this show made it possible to donate to Pacific State Hospital in Pomona for general purposes and also to adopt a child by our group from the hospital and contribute spending money plus clothing and toys and remember the child on her birthday and on holidays.
 Harbor General Hospital is another worthy cause that Eta Kappa donates to. Earlier this year a walk-in chair was donated to Harbor General Hospital which they desperately need. In October $105.00 was donated to Harbor General Hospital because of an urgent need for a stand and cord for their cardiograph machine. The American Cancer Society and the Disaster Fund were other worthy causes donated to by our Chapter.
 Eta Kappa is also taking part in a benefit dance sponsored by the Mira Costa Council of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority which is to be held at the Mayflower Hotel ballroom, 234 S. Hindry St., Inglewood, on Saturday, Nov. 15 at 8 p.m. Proceeds will go to Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation, Desert Hot Springs, California. Tickets are $3.00 per couple. Call DA 3-4466 for tickets.
 On Wednesday, Nov. 26 members of Eta Kappa are holding a rummage sale at 10724 S. Main St., Los Angeles. Donations or contributions such as clothing, furniture, dishes, toys, etc., will gladly be accepted and picked up by the members.
